Education in America, 1960-1969 Paul Woodring, James Cass, 1971      Critical Reflexive Research Methodologies, 2023-11-07 While all oppressions are equal some are more equal than others This statement borrowed from George Orwell's Animal Farm and written and marinated to fit within and without our call for ethical research helps us to see how contemporary research processes are singular and fail to account for the complex histories realities and values of marginalized communities Such a failure to account and remember has had massive symbolic and material consequences on marginalized communities illustrated by the number of deaths we continue to witness everyday Those deaths have been sanctioned and authorized by the ways in which we come to know what we know and how that is imprinted in our policies and everyday existence This book looks at knowledge production as a process of giving an account of those losses in ways that help knowledge production to be a mechanism of remembering cognitive and remembering community or bring together solidarity a form of epistemological and ontological demonstration Ethical knowledge production becomes a process of relationship that remembers the histories values and realities of people in ways that are transformative and political Such an expression fails to arrive at an end and rather recognizes knowledge production as endless production of knowledge Such a process goes against neoliberal mechanism of commodifying knowledge for sale in the market This edited collection attempts to engage with current qualitative research methodologies and approaches from a critically and ethically reflexive standpoint This work seeks to unravel colonial practices that continue to hide within qualitative approaches in ways that invite a new reimagining of working within and without qualitative methodologies This edited collection therefore seeks to bring to the fore the lived experiences of the studied to their storied life in ways that are ethically and politically congruent

This work therefore seeks to bring forth Foucault's subterranean narratives steeped in contexts and experiences that can critically invert the dominant colonial capitalist state practices in existing research

Oxford Studies in Political Philosophy, Volume 3 David Sobel, Peter Vallentyne, Steven Wall, 2017-06-30 This is the third volume of Oxford Studies in Political Philosophy Since its revival in the 1970s political philosophy has been a vibrant field in philosophy one that intersects with jurisprudence normative economics political theory in political science departments and just war theory OSPP aims to publish some of the best contemporary work in political philosophy and these closely related subfields This volume features ten papers and an introduction The papers address a range of central topics and represent cutting edge work in the field The first two parts of the volume deal with equality and justice and state legitimacy while the final part looks at social issues that are not easily understood in terms of personal morality yet which need not centrally involve the state

The Border Reader Gilberto Rosas, Mireya Loza, 2023-09-18 The Border Reader brings together canonical and cutting edge humanities and social science scholarship on the US Mexico border region Spot lighting the vibrancy of border studies from the field s emergence to its enduring significance the essays mobilize feminist queer and critical ethnic studies perspectives to theorize the border as a site of epistemic rupture and knowledge production The chapters speak to how borders exist as regions where people and nation states negotiate power citizenship and questions of empire Among other topics these essays examine the lived experiences of the diverse undocumented people who move through and live in the border region trace the gendered and sexualized experiences of the border show how the US Mexico border has become a site of illegality where immigrant bodies become racialized and excluded and imagine anti and post border futures Foregrounding the interplay of scholarly inquiry and political urgency stemming from the borderlands The Border Reader presents a unique cross section of critical interventions on the region Contributors Leisy J Abrego Gloria E Anzald a Martha Balaguera Lionel Cant Leo R Chavez Ra l Fern ndez Rosa Linda Fregoso Roberto G Gonzales Gilbert G Gonz lez Ram n Guti rrez Kelly Lytle Hern ndez Jos E Lim n Mireya Loza Alejandro Lugo Eithne Luibh id Martha Menchaca Cecilia Menj var Natalia Molina Fiamma Montezemolo Am rico Paredes N stor Rodr guez Renato Rosaldo Gilberto Rosas Mar a Josefina Salda a Portillo Sonia Sald var Hull Alicia Schmidt Camacho Sayak Valencia Triana Carlos G V lez Ib ez Patricia Zavella

Saturday Review , 1961-07      University of Illinois Studies in the Social Sciences , 1920      Global Perspectives in the Geography Curriculum Alex Standish, 2008-10-07 For geographers across the globe this book provides the arguments for a return to the teaching of geography and why they should reject the politicisation of the subject by education policy makers and politicians Standish s careful critique shows the necessity of a depoliticised geography curriculum the irony of which would be that it would ensure that every child could point to Iraq Iran and Afghanistan on a map Prof Dennis Hayes Oxford Brookes University UK A prescient and critical analysis of the changing face of geography teaching This book deserves to be widely read and debated Alex Standish s book puts current trends in geography teaching in historical and critical context It comprises a forthright and timely defence of geographical education for its own sake Dr Jim Butcher FRSA Department of Sport Science Tourism and Leisure Canterbury Christ Church University Since the early 1990s educational policy makers and some subject leaders have been seeking to fundamentally change the teaching of geography in UK and US schools from a subject which encourages students to explore spatial concepts ideas and skills to a more ethics based subject concerned with the promotion of environmentalism cultural diversity and social justice In this book the new approach is critically examined within a historical and ideological context addressing a number of fundamental questions Should geography be used as a tool for the delivery of citizenship ideals How does this affect the intellectual and moral value of geographical education for young people If the state and teachers are taking more responsibility for the values attitudes and emotional responses of students how will they learn to develop these qualities for themselves If global perspectives shift the focus of education from learning about the outside world to learning about the self what is its vision of social progress and conception of social change This book advocates a return to liberal models of education arguing that the new approach to geography currently being promoted for schools fundamentally undermines the educational value of the subject and the freedom of young people to shape the world in which they live A vital resource for teachers and student teachers alike Global Perspectives in the Geography Curriculum makes a significant contribution to the growing debate about the future direction of the discipline itself      Unto Others Elliott Sober, David Sloan

Wilson, 1999-10-01 The authors demonstrate that unselfish behavior is in fact an important feature of both biological and human nature Their book provides a panoramic view of altruism throughout the animal kingdom from self sacrificing parasites to the human capacity for selflessness even as it explains the evolutionary sense of such behavior      Development and Modern Industrial Policy in Practice Jesus Felipe, 2015-04-24 Development and Modern Industrial Policy in Practice provides an up to date analysis of industrial policy Modern industrial policy refers to the set of actions and strategies used to favor the more dynamic sectors of the economy A key aspect of modern      Carceral Humanitarianism Kelly Oliver, 2017-02-27 Co-opted by military operations humanitarianism has never been neutral Rather than welcoming refugees host countries assess the relative risks of taking them in versus turning them away using a risk benefit analysis that often reduces refugees to collateral damage in proxy wars fought in the war on terrorism Carceral Humanitarianism testifies that humanitarian aid and human rights discourse are always political and partisan Forerunners is a thought in process series of breakthrough digital works Written between fresh ideas and finished books Forerunners draws on scholarly work initiated in notable blogs social media conference plenaries journal articles and the synergy of academic exchange This is gray literature publishing where intense thinking change and speculation take place in scholarship      Hungarian Rhapsodies Richard Teleky, 1997 From an examination of photographer Andre Kertesz to a visit to a Hungarian American church in Cleveland Teleky writes with perception and humor about the American need to reconcile contemporary identity with a heritage from another country
