The Social Symbolism of Grief and Mourning R. B. Grainger, 1985* The Social Symbolism of Grief and Mourning Roger Beckett Grainger, 1979 A Teacher's Handbook of Death Maggie Jackson, Jim Colwell, 2002 Teachers are increasingly called upon to discuss and explain death and dying to children in the classroom This book provides them with methods to facilitate open discussions of death and to find suitable ways of talking with children about what happens when someone they know dies Symbolic Loss Peter Homans, 2000 Historically many world cultures have linked three disparate phenomena collective loss mourning and the construction of monuments and cultural symbols to represent the loss over time and render it memorable meaningful and thereby bearable In a century of great loss observers of western culture have commented on the decline of mourning practices and the absence of their associated rituals The ten essays assembled here by Peter Homans represent in a genuinely interdisciplinary way the recent work of scholars attempting to understand this trend Arranged in sections on cultural studies architecture history and psychology this accessible collection can serve as an introduction to the uses of mourning in contemporary cultures Contributors Paul A Anderson University of Michigan Doris L Bergen University of Notre Dame Mitchell Breitwieser University of California Berkeley Peter Homans University of Chicago Patrick H Hutton University of Vermont Marie Claire Lavabre National Institute for Scientific Research Paris Peter C Shabad Northwestern University Medical School and Columbia Michael Reese Hospital and Medical Center Levi P Smith Art Institute of Chicago Julia Stern Northwestern University James E Young University of Massachusetts Amherst Handbook of Social Justice in Loss and Grief Darcy L. Harris, Tashel C. Bordere, 2016-02-05 The Handbook of Social Justice in Loss and Grief is a scholarly work of social criticism richly grounded in personal experience evocative case studies and current multicultural and sociocultural theories and research It is also consistently practical and reflective challenging readers to think through responses to ethically complex scenarios in which social justice is undermined by radically uneven opportunity structures hierarchies of voice and privilege personal and professional power and unconscious assumptions at the very junctures when people are most vulnerable at points of serious illness confrontation with end of life decision making and in the throes of grief and bereavement Harris and Bordere give the reader an active and engaged take on the field enticing readers to interrogate their own assumptions and practices while increasing chapter after chapter their cultural literacy regarding important groups and contexts The Handbook of Social Justice in Loss and Grief deeply and uniquely addresses a hot topic in the helping professions and social sciences and does so with uncommon readability We Are What We Mourn Priscila Uppal, 2009 The first book on the Canadian poetic elegy challenges all previous ideas about the purpose of mourning Boundaries of Self and Other in Ghanaian Popular Culture Joseph K. Adjaye, 2004-03-31 Rituals are among the most enduring aspects of the African cultural landscape They appear to exist outside of time eternal and unchanging Joseph Adjaye argues that while rituals may seem to be static in reality they are dynamic and changing Through intense analysis of child naming ceremonies libations puberty initiation rights funerals and two major Ghanaian festivals Adjaye explores the interplay between ritual and audience interaction and participation By so doing he shows the many ways rituals have provided Ghanaians with a means to conceptualize and change their present and shape their future In other words rituals help individuals escape the boundaries of self by promoting a sense of collective purpose and agency This book will appeal to not only Africanists but to readers interested in the roles rituals play in their own lives and the ways that rituals encourage socially transforming initiatives
