Unhomed Pamela Robertson Wojcik, 2024-04-23 In this rich cultural history Pamela Robertson Wojcik examines America's ambivalent and shifting attitude toward homelessness. She considers film cycles from five distinct historical moments that show characters who are unhomed and placeless mobile rather than fixed characters who fail resist or opt out of the mandate for a home of one's own. From the tramp films of the silent era to the 2021 Oscar winning Nomadland Wojcik reveals a tension in the American imaginary between viewing homelessness as deviant and threatening or emblematic of freedom and independence. Blending social history with insights drawn from a complex array of films both canonical and fringe Wojcik effectively unhomes dominant narratives that cast aspirations for success and social mobility as the focus of American cinema reminding us that genres of precarity have been central to American cinema and the American story all along Thirty-two New Takes on Taiwan Cinema Emilie Yueh-yu Yeh, Darrell William Davis, Wenchi Lin, 2022-12-22 Thirty-two New Takes on Taiwan Cinema covers thirty-two films from Taiwan addressing a flowering of new talent moving from art film to genre pictures and nonfiction. Beyond the conventional framework of privileging New and Post New Cinema or prominence of auteurs or single films this volume is a comprehensive judicious take on Taiwan cinema that fills gaps in the literature offers a renewed historiography and introduces new creative force and voices of Taiwan's moving image culture to produce a leading and accessible work on Taiwan film and culture. Film by film is conceived as the main carrier of moving picture imagery for a majority of viewers across the world. The curation offers an array of formal historical genre sexual social and political frames which provide a rich brew of contexts. This surfeit of meanings is carried by individual films one by one which breaks down abstractions into narrative bites and outsized emotions In Stereotype Mrinalini Chakravorty, 2014-09-02 In Stereotype confronts the importance of cultural stereotypes in shaping the ethics and reach of global literature. Mrinalini Chakravorty focuses on the seductive force and explanatory power of stereotypes in multiple South Asian contexts whether depicting hunger crowdedness filth slums death migrant flight terror or outsourcing. She argues that such commonplaces are crucial to defining cultural identity in contemporary literature and shows how the stereotype's ambivalent nature exposes the crises of liberal development in South Asia. In Stereotype considers the influential work of Salman Rushdie Aravind Adiga Michael Ondaatje Monica Ali Mohsin Hamid and Chetan Bhagat among others to illustrate how stereotypes about South Asia provide insight into the material and psychic investments of contemporary imaginative texts the colonial novel the transnational film and the international best seller. Probing circumstances that range from the independence of the Indian subcontinent to poverty tourism civil war migration domestic labor and terrorist radicalism Chakravorty builds an interpretive lens for reading literary representations of cultural and global difference. In the process she also reevaluates the fascination with transnational novels and films that manufacture global differences by staging intersubjective encounters between cultures through stereotypes Cultural Politics and Identity Barbara Weber, 2011 Cultural politics and identity the

Undoing Privilege Professor Bob Pease, 2013-04-04 For every group that is oppressed another group is privileged In Undoing Privilege Bob Pease argues that privilege as the other side of oppression has received insufficient attention in both critical theories and in the practices of social change As a result dominant groups have been allowed to reinforce their dominance Undoing Privilege explores the main sites of privilege from Western dominance class elitism and white and patriarchal privilege to the less examined sites of heterosexual and able bodied privilege Pease points out that while the vast majority of people may be oppressed on one level many are also privileged on another He also demonstrates how members of privileged groups can engage critically with their own dominant position and explores the potential and limitations of them becoming allies against oppression and their own unearned privilege This is an essential book for all who are concerned about developing theories and practices for a socially just world

An Analysis of Gayatri Chakravorty Spivak's Can the Subaltern Speak? Graham Riach,2017-07-05 A critical analysis of Spivak s classic 1988 postcolonial studies essay in which she argues that a core problem for the poorest and most marginalized in society the subalterns is that they have no platform to express their concerns and no voice to affect policy debates or demand a fairer share of society s goods A key theme of Gayatri Spivak s work is agency the ability of the individual to make their own decisions While Spivak s main aim is to consider ways in which subalterns her term for the indigenous dispossessed in colonial societies were able to achieve agency this paper concentrates specifically on describing the ways in which western scholars inadvertently reproduce hegemonic structures in their work Spivak is herself a scholar and she remains acutely aware of the difficulty and dangers of presuming to speak for the subalterns she writes about As such her work can be seen as predominantly a delicate exercise in the critical thinking skill of interpretation she looks in detail at issues of meaning specifically at the real meaning of the available evidence and her paper is an attempt not only to highlight problems of definition but to clarify them What makes this one of the key works of interpretation in the Macat library is of course the underlying significance of this work Interpretation in this case is a matter of the difference between allowing subalterns to speak for themselves and of imposing a mode of speaking on them that however well intentioned can be as damaging in the postcolonial world as the agency stifling political structures of the colonial world itself By clearing away the detritus of scholarly attempts at interpretation Spivak takes a stand against a specifically intellectual form of oppression and marginalization

Foodscapes, Foodfields, and Identities in Yucatán Steffan Igor Ayora Díaz, 2012 The state of Yucatán has its own distinct culinary tradition and local people are constantly thinking and talking about food They use it as a vehicle for social relations but also to distinguish themselves from Mexicans This book examines the politics surrounding regional cuisine as the author argues that Yucatecan gastronomy has been created and promoted in an effort to affirm the identity of a regional people and to oppose the hegemonic force of central Mexican cultural icons and forms In particular Yucatecan gastronomy counters the homogenizing drive of a national cuisine based on dominant central Mexican appetencies and defies the image of Mexican national cuisine as rooted in indigenous traditions Drawing on post structural and postcolonial theory the author proposes that Yucatecan gastronomy having successfully gained a reputation as distinct and distant from Mexican cuisine is a bifurcation from regional culinary practices However the author warns this leads to a double paradoxical situation that divides the nation while a national cuisine attempts to silence regional cultural diversity the fissures in the project of a homogeneous regional identity are revealed Race, Culture, and the City Stephen Nathan
