

The background of the book cover is a detailed illustration of a busy city street scene. In the foreground, a social worker, a man with a beard wearing a light blue sweater and dark pants, is leaning forward and handing a large white sheet of paper to an elderly woman. The woman is wearing a white hairnet and a brown coat. To their right, a man in a dark jacket and a flat cap is gesturing with his hand. Further right, another man in a brown jacket and a flat cap is looking towards the social worker. In the background, a diverse crowd of people is walking on the sidewalk. A sign for 'FLORISH CATERING' is visible on a building in the background. The overall scene suggests a social worker interacting with a community in an urban environment.

The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a brilliant and suspenseful novel that will keep you speculating until the very end. The novel is a warning tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
