A History of World Societies, Volume 1: To 1600 John P. McKay, Bennett D. Hill, John Buckler, Roger B. Beck, Clare Haru Crowston, Patricia Buckley Ebrey, Merry E. Wiesner-Hanks, 2011-10-05 A History of World Societies introduces students to the global past through social history and the stories and voices of the people who lived it Now published by Bedford St Martin s and informed by the latest scholarship the book has been thoroughly revised with students in mind to meet the needs of the evolving course Proven to work in the classroom the book s regional and comparative approach helps students understand the connections of global history while providing a manageable organization With more global connections and comparisons more documents special features and activities that teach historical analysis and an entirely new look the ninth edition is the most teachable and accessible edition yet Test drive a chapter today Find out how Making Agreements in Medieval Catalonia Adam J. Kosto, 2001-05-03 This study examines the role of written agreements in eleventh and twelfth century Catalonia and how they determined the social and political order By tracing the fate of these agreements or convenientiae from their first appearance to the late twelfth century it is possible to demonstrate the remarkable stability of the fluid structures which they engendered in what is generally thought of as feudal society The process of documentary change reveals the true nature and pace of the transformation of the year 1000 Analysis of the convenientia as an instrument of power and its interaction with oral practices contributes to a deeper understanding of the role of the written word in medieval societies Finally a broad historiographical context establishes the significance of this study of Catalonia for a more general appreciation of the medieval Mediterranean world Iberia and the Mediterranean World of the Middle Ages, Volume II Kagay, Padilla, Paul Chevedden, 2021-09-20 Brill s series The Medieval Mediterranean has established itself as the main forum for studies exploring all aspects of the Mediterranean world during a period of 1000 years In the medieval period the Mediterranean experienced a multiplicity of developments in social political and economic structures and in populations religions and cultures The centuries between the Late Roman world of the fourth and fifth century and the early modern Braudelian Mediterranean of the sixteenth century were characterised by sweeping changes including the establishment of post Roman kingdoms in the west the emergence of Slav societies in the Balkans the struggle between Christians and Muslims in Spain and the movement of crusaders Founded in 1993 The Medieval Mediterranean series reflects the complexity of this period with a wide variety of high quality scholarly works from broad surveys to diachronic studies of particular areas or cities investigations of individual themes or issues conference proceedings text editions and fully annotated translations Top specialists in a range of fields have contributed to the series and the volumes which have appeared so far have been warmly welcomed by reviewers This series is indispensable for readers with interests in the history of later antiquity the Middle Ages Byzantium Islam the Balkans and the Black Sea area Publication schedule At present 3 volumes of around 350 pages each are published in the series each year The vast majority of the books in the series

are in the English language although works of outstanding quality in French or German may also be included Volumes contain illustrations and maps where appropriate

Trusting Records H. MacNeil, 2013-03-09 A trustworthy record is one that is both an accurate statement of facts and a genuine manifestation of those facts Record trustworthiness thus has two qualitative dimensions reliability and authenticity Reliability means that the record is capable of standing for the facts to which it attests while authenticity means that the record is what it claims to be This study explores the evolution of the principles and methods for determining record trustworthiness from antiquity to the digital age and from the perspectives of law and history It also examines recent efforts undertaken by researchers in the field of archival science to develop methods for ensuring the trustworthiness of records created and maintained in electronic systems Audience The target audience for this study is legal scholars working in the field of evidence law historians working in the field of historical methodology and recordkeeping professionals records managers information technology specialists archivists working on the design and implementation of contemporary organizational recordkeeping systems

Europe and the Islamic World John Tolan, Henry Laurens, Gilles Veinstein, 2012-11-25 A sweeping history of Islam and the West from the seventh century to today Europe and the Islamic World sheds much needed light on the shared roots of Islamic and Western cultures and on the richness of their inextricably intertwined histories refuting once and for all the misguided notion of a clash of civilizations between the Muslim world and Europe In this landmark book three eminent historians bring to life the complex and tumultuous relations between Genoans and Tunisians Alexandrians and the people of Constantinople Catalans and Maghrebis the myriad groups and individuals whose stories reflect the common cultural intellectual and religious heritage of Europe and Islam Since the seventh century when the armies of Constantinople and Medina fought for control of Syria and Palestine there has been ongoing contact between the Muslim world and the West This sweeping history vividly recounts the wars and the crusades the alliances and diplomacy commerce and the slave trade technology transfers and the intellectual and artistic exchanges Here readers are given an unparalleled introduction to key periods and events including the Muslim conquests the collapse of the Byzantine Empire the commercial revolution of the medieval Mediterranean the intellectual and cultural achievements of Muslim Spain the crusades and Spanish reconquest the rise of the Ottomans and their conquest of a third of Europe European colonization and decolonization and the challenges and promise of this entwined legacy today As provocative as it is groundbreaking this book describes this shared history in all its richness and diversity revealing how ongoing encounters between Europe and Islam have profoundly shaped both Iberia and the Mediterranean World of the Middle Ages, Volume I: Proceedings from Kalamazoo Simon,2021-09-20 Eighteen studies many based on archival evidence or new methodologies some proceeding from novel angles explore the history and culture of Iberia Italy and the Mediterranean World in the Middle Ages The studies were originally presented at the 27th International Congress of Medieval Studies at Kalamazoo in 1992 and have been collected in honor of Robert I Burns S J the distinguished medievalist and historian of Mediterranean Spain Most of the studies mirror the honoree s scholarly interests Muslim Christian Jewish relations in medieval Iberia the economy and society of the Mediterranean World religious polemic and ecclesiastical history and medieval personalities and institutions Ten of the studies concern aspects of cultural symbiosis or inter religious relations in a pluri ethnic society and at least an equal number relate to the literary and social history of the Catalan speaking lands of Mediterranean Spain Journal of Medieval Military History John France,Kelly DeVries,Clifford J. Rogers,2019-05-17 This volume focuses on two of the most vibrant areas of research in the field Crusader studies and the warfare of the Late Middle Ages embracing a diversity of approaches Chapters look at the battle of Tell Bashir 1108 in the context of Saljuq politics the defenses of Altit castle one of the Templars strongest fortifications from an archaeological perspective the involvement of the Military Orders in secular conflicts particularly in Europe and how royal women affected and were affected by the wars of Castile and the Crown of Aragon in the fourteenth century Fencing competitions are used to explore masculinity and status in Strasbourg from the late Middle Ages into the early modern period and key aspects of the actual conduct of warfare in the fifteenth century come under detailed scrutiny the role of cavalry in turning the Hundred Years War in favour of the French and the logistical and procurement difficulties and methods involved in fielding a Florentine army in 1498 The volume is completed with a translation and discussion of Guillaume Guiart s rich description of a French royal army on the march and in camp at the start of the fourteenth century Contributors Fabrizio Ansani Drew Bolinger Oliver Dupuis Ehud Galili Michael Harbinson Donald J Kagay Michael Livingston Ken Mondschein Helen J Nicholson Avraham Ronen Andrew L J Villalon Diplomatarium of the Crusader Kingdom of Valencia Robert Ignatius Burns,2021-09-14 This fourth volume in Robert Burns s celebrated series on the warrior King Jaume the Conqueror s Kingdom of Valencia describes the crucial years of 1270 to 1273 a period during which Jaume continued his consolidation of political power for future territorial expansion Here in the colonial kingdom that he carved out from the Islamic Mediterranean regions of coastal Spain Jaume presided over a society more complex than any in Christendom This lively frontier was home to semiautonomous communities of Muslims Jews and Christian settlers Jaume s pioneering exploitation of Valencia s Islamic paper mills left behind thousands of charters records in the king s registers that provide a wealth of detailed information about every aspect of these parallel cultures Burns s Diplomatarium volumes represent the first systematic exploration of this massive deployment of paper in the West They open up to readers the rich humanistic panorama of medieval life as seen from the traveling court of a conqueror king The 500 charters collected in this book cover a kaleidoscope of topics including public baths castles the renaissance of law irrigation mosques and monasteries hospitals and banks even exotic women There are records on crossbow manufacture riot and fire control ship launchers dogs of war crime slavery prisons and pardons This critical edition includes reconstructions of each charter in its original Latin or Romance language with a corresponding translation in English making it invaluable for students and scholars alike The Western Mediterranean Kingdoms David S H Abulafia,David Bates,2014-06-17 A pioneering account of the dynastic struggle between the kings of Aragon and the Angevin kings of Naples which shaped the commercial as well as the political map of the Mediterranean and had a profound effect on the futures of Spain France Italy and Sicily David Abulafia does it full justice reclaiming from undeserved neglect one of the formative themes in the history of the Middle Ages Maimonides Review of Philosophy and Religion Volume 3, 2024 ,2024-09-09 The Maimonides Review of Philosophy and Religion is an annual collection of double blind peer reviewed articles that seeks to provide a broad international arena for an intellectual exchange of ideas between the disciplines of philosophy theology religion cultural history and literature and to showcase their multifarious junctures within the framework of Jewish studies Contributions to the Review place special thematic emphasis on scepticism within Jewish thought and its links to other religious traditions and secular worldviews The Review is interested in the tension at the heart of matters of reason and faith rationalism and mysticism theory and practice narrativity and normativity doubt and dogma Official Documents, Comprising the international experts summarizing recent developments in Genizah research The Crusader World Adrian Boas,2015-10-14 The Crusader World is a multidisciplinary survey of the current state of research in the field of crusader studies an area of study which has become increasingly popular in recent years In this volume Adrian Boas draws together an impressive range of academics including work from renowned scholars as well as a number of though provoking pieces from emerging researchers in order to provide broad coverage of the major aspects of the period This authoritative work will play an important role in the future direction of crusading studies This volume enriches present knowledge of the crusades addressing such wide ranging subjects as intelligence and espionage gender issues religious celebrations in crusader Jerusalem political struggles in crusader Antioch the archaeological study of battle sites and fortifications diseases suffered by the crusaders crusading in northern Europe and Spain and the impact of Crusader art The relationship between Crusaders and Muslims two distinct and in many way opposing cultures is also examined in depth including a discussion of how the Franks perceived their enemies Arranged into eight thematic sections The Crusader World considers many central issues as well as a large number of less familiar topics of the crusades crusader society history and culture With over 100 photographs line drawings and maps this impressive collection of essays is a key resource for students and scholars alike The

Crusader Armies Steve Tibble, 2018-08-21 A major history of the Crusades that illuminates the strength and sophistication of the Western and Muslim armies During the Crusades the Western and Muslim armies developed various highly sophisticated strategies of both attack and defense which evolved during the course of the battles In this ambitious new work Steve Tibble draws on a wide range of Muslim texts and archaeological evidence as well as more commonly cited Western sources to analyze the respective armies strategy adaptation evolution and cultural diversity and show just how sophisticated the Crusader armies were even by today's standards In the first comprehensive account of the subject in sixty years Tibble takes a fresh approach to Templars Hospitallers and other key Orders and makes the controversial proposition that the Crusades were driven as much by sedentary versus nomadic tribal concerns as by religious conflict This fluently written broad ranging narrative provides a crucial missing piece in the study of the West's attempts to colonize the Middle East during the Middle Ages Now Tibble takes a new approach one that adds to prior research and may well influence subsequent research This book is a must read for medievalists R J Powell Choice A book that welcomes everyone regardless of the reader's background in the subject Crusade historians like to complain that the general public knows nothing about their scholarship It is books like this that will change that Thomas F Madden Reading Religion The Crusader Armies offers more than the obligatory corrections to the historical ignorance of our age It is a full scale reassessment of the warfare armies and enemies of the Western Crusades in the Middle East readable expertly sourced and well organized Timothy D Lusch Chronicles The Crusader Armies 1099-1187 is a worthy and sound contribution to the literature on its subject Steve Tibble paints a compelling picture of continual systemic warfare Laurence W Marvin Michigan War Studies Review Selected for Choice's 2019 Outstanding Academic Titles List Women and the White Man's God Myra Rutherdale, 2007-10-01

Between 1860 and 1940 Anglican missionaries were very active in northern British Columbia Yukon and the Northwest Territories To date histories of this mission work have largely focused on men while the activities of women either as missionary wives or as missionaries in their own right have been seen as peripheral at best if not completely overlooked Based on diaries letters and mission correspondence Women and the White Man's God is the first comprehensive examination of women's roles in northern domestic missions The status of women in the Anglican Church gender relations in the mission field and encounters between Aboriginals and missionaries are carefully scrutinized Arguing that the mission encounter challenged colonial hierarchies Rutherdale expands our understanding of colonization at the intersection of gender race and religion This book is a critical addition to scholarship in women s Canadian Native and religious studies and complements a growing body of literature on gender and empire in Canada and elsewhere England and the Crusades, 1095-1588 Christopher Tyerman,1996-12-15 Drawing on a wide range of archival chronicle and literary evidence Tyerman brings to life the royal personalities foreign policy political intrigue taxation and fundraising and the crusading ethos that gripped England for hundreds of years Amazon Letters from the East Malcolm Barber,Keith Bate,2016-05-06 No written source is entirely without literary artifice but the letters sent from Asia Minor Syria and Palestine in the high middle ages come closest to recording the real feelings of those who lived in and visited the crusader states They are not of course reflective pieces but they do convey the immediacy of circumstances which were frequently dramatic and often life threatening Those settled in the East faced crises all the time while crusaders and pilgrims knew they were experiencing defining moments in their lives There are accounts of all the great events from the triumph of the capture of Jerusalem in 1099 to the disasters of Hattin in 1187 and the loss of Acre in 1291 These had an impact on the lives of all Latin Christians but at the same time individuals felt impelled to describe both their own personal achievements and disappointments and the wonders and horrors of what they had seen Moreover the representatives of the military and monastic orders used letters as a means of maintaining contact with the western houses providing information about the working of religious orders not found elsewhere Some of the letters translated here are famous others hardly known but all offer unique insight into the minds of those who took part in the crusading movement Letters from the East Mr Keith Bate,Professor Malcolm Barber,2013-07-28 This volume presents translations of a selection of the letters sent by crusaders and pilgrims from Asia Minor Syria and Palestine There are accounts of all the great events from the triumph of the capture of Jerusalem in 1099 to the disasters of Hattin in 1187 and the loss of Acre in 1291 They convey the immediacy of circumstances which were frequently dramatic and often life threatening and show us the feelings of those who lived in and visited the crusader states Some of the letters translated here are famous others hardly known but all offer unique insight into the minds of those who took part in the crusading movement
