San Diego's Hysterical History Herbert Lockwood, 2003 Readers will enjoy these tales of eccentric kooks and the many other oddball men and women whose antics made San Diego the superior attraction it is today Skeleton's Closet Herbert Lockwood, 1967 Skeletons in Our Closet Clark Spencer Larsen, 2020-09-01 The dead tell no tales Or do they In this fascinating book Clark Spencer Larsen shows that the dead can speak to us about their lives and ours through the remarkable insights of bioarchaeology which reconstructs the lives and lifestyles of past peoples based on the study of skeletal remains The human skeleton is an amazing storehouse of information It records the circumstances of our growth and development as reflected in factors such as disease stress diet nutrition climate activity and injury Bioarchaeologists by combining the methods of forensic science and archaeology along with the resources of many other disciplines including chemistry geology physics and biology read the information stored in bones to understand what life was really like for our human ancestors They are unearthing some surprises For instance the shift from hunting and gathering to agriculture approximately 10 000 years ago has commonly been seen as a major advancement in the course of human evolution However as Larsen provocatively shows this change may not have been so positive Compared to their hunter gatherer ancestors many early farmers suffered more disease had to work harder and endured a poorer quality of life due to poorer diets and more marginal living conditions Moreover the past 10 000 years have seen dramatic changes in the human physiognomy as a result of alterations in our diet and lifestyle Some modern health problems including obesity and chronic disease may also have their roots in these earlier changes Drawing on vivid accounts from his own experiences as a bioarchaeologist Larsen guides us through some of the key developments in recent human evolution including the adoption of agriculture the arrival of Europeans in the Americas and the biological consequences of this contact and the settlement of the American West in the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries Written in a lively and engaging manner this book is for anyone interested in what the dead have to tell us about the living Empire Builder Sandra E. Bonura, 2022-12 Empire Builder is the previously untold story of John D Spreckels the pioneer who almost singlehandedly built San Diego after creating empires in sugar shipping transportation and building development up and down the coast of California and across the Pacific San Diego Specters John J. Lamb, 1999 San Diego Specters is an entertaining investigation into haunted sites some famous and others obscure throughout San Diego County Fresh witness accounts are combined with genuine historical research on each of the suspected haunted places Haunted sites examined include the Hotel Del Coronado the world renowned Whaley House and other historic buildings in Old Town San Diego Firsthand reports of ghost and poltergeist phenomena are blended with historic data to provide an unorthodox and engaging portrait of spectral San Diego All haunted locations listed in the book have been thoroughly checked by the author John Lamb a trained detective with 22 years of law enforcement experience American Book Publishing Record Cumulative, 1950-1977 R.R. Bowker Company. Department of Bibliography, 1978

Born a Slave, Died a Pioneer Seth Mallios, 2019-11-01 Spectacular recent discoveries from the Nathan Harrison cabin site offer new insights and perspectives into the life of this former slave and legendary California homesteader. In many ways it is a quintessential American story because of the fact that slavery was the American story. Julia A. King, St. Mary's College of Maryland. Few people in the history of the United States embody ideals of the American Dream more than Nathan Harrison. His is a story with prominent themes of overcoming staggering obstacles, forging something from nothing, and evincing gritty perseverance. In a lifetime of hard won progress, Harrison survived the horrors of slavery in the Antebellum South, endured the mania of the California Gold Rush, and prospered in the rugged chaos of the Wild West. From the introduction. According to dozens of accounts, Harrison would routinely greet visitors to his remote Southern California hillside property with the introductory quip, "I'm Nate, the first white man on the mountain." This is by far the most common direct quote in all of the extensive Harrison lore. If it is possible to get past current day shock and outrage over the inflammatory racial epithet, one can begin to contextualize and appreciate the ironic humor, ethnic insight, and dualistically crafted identities Harrison employed in this profound statement. *Catalog of Copyright Entries.
