inhabited by various races in turn All that is known of them and of their manner of life is gathered from the remains found near the caves in which they dwelt The only implements of the earliest race were rudely chipped stone knives They were followed by a people somewhat like the Eskimos who lived in underground dwellings or in villages raised on piles by the shores of lakes They knew how to polish their stone knives and weapons and lived by hunting and fishing some of them were cannibals A people of a Finnish type came in amongst them and taught them the use of bronze These newcomers built their huts in circles and buried their dead in round barrows After them came immigrations of Celts who named the land Britain and of them history begins to tell us some About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
