Inhabiting Cyberspace and Emerging Cyberplaces Tobias Boos, 2017-11-02 This book explores the concept of cyberplace as a mode of inhabiting the contemporary world As a result it suggests that for many communities unlocking cyberspace and inhabiting cyberplaces is now an integral part of their coming to the globalised world Boos reviews in the detail the existing academic literature from cultural anthropology human geography and sociology on cyberspace concluding that a phenomenological perspective on cyberspace provides the possibility of gaining a deep understanding of our contemporary lifeworlds in which on and offline practices constantly intermingle In four chapters he applies the developed theoretical and methodological approaches to the case of Siena s neighbourhoods the contrade analysing their websites and discussing the implications of his findings for understanding contemporary processes of community building and for future research on cyberspace This concise and accessible book will be of interest to advanced students and scholars in cultural anthropology human geography media studies and sociology

Samsung, Media Empire and Family Chunhyo Kim, 2016-02-26 This book analyses media conglomerates owning multiple media holdings under centralized ownership within and across media markets It argues that Asian capitalists utilize both a market oriented ideology and family connections to build their media empires thereby creating cultural conglomerates that exercise corporate censorship over media markets It focuses on family controlled media conglomerates in Korea specifically the international business giant Samsung and its related media companies Cheil Jedang and JoongAng Ilbo all of which are controlled by the single Lee family Utilizing the theoretical approach of political economy of communication the book examines how and why the Lee family exercise corporate censorship over Korean society Offering an essential take on Asia s political economy of communication in order to understand the workings of Asian media empires this book will appeal to students and scholars of Korean Studies Korean Business and Mass Communications Public and Private Families Andrew J. Cherlin,2001-07 Nationally recognized for its sound scholarship and balanced approach and written by one of the leading authorities in the field Public and Private Families 3 e examines the family through two lenses the familiar private family in which we live most of our personal lives and the public family in which we as adults deal with broader societal issues such as the care of the elderly the increase in divorce and childbearing outside of marriage Consequently the book looks both at intimate personal concerns such as whether to marry as well as societal concerns such as governmental policies that affect families Sociology Richard T. Schaefer,2004 Three basic premises guide this highly successful introductory text first that theory and research must be both comprehensive and clear second that the text must show how sociology is relevant both to the study of society and to students lives and third that sociology can play a valuable role in teaching critical thinking skills To that end this solid well respected text combines a balanced three perspective approach with excellent student oriented examples and distinctive social policy sections in a concise presentation that offers an alternative to full length books

Understanding Human Sexuality Janet Shibley Hyde,E. Sandra Byers,John D. DeLamater,2004 Management Leslie W. Rue,Lloyd L. Byars,2002-06 Rue and Byars MANAGEMENT 10th Edition is a short value priced paperback offering for principles of management It continues its tradition of presenting principles of management in a very straightforward and accessible manner focusing on the skills that are needed to become a successful manager Looseleaf for Social Problems and the Quality of Life Robert H.
