Social Psychological Perspectives on Second Language Learning Rama Kant Agnihotri, Amrit Lal Khanna, Itesh Sachdev, 1998 Social Psychological Perspectives on Second Language Learning R K Agnihotri, A L Khanna, Itesh Sachdev, 1998-11-24 This book the fourth in the Research in Applied Linguistics series examines the role of social psychological factors especially attitudes and motivation in second language learning and communication Based on empirical research from multilingual and pluricultural societies the book offers insights into the pressures that minority language groups face while learning the majority language in the host culture Positive Psychology Perspectives on Foreign Language Learning and Teaching Danuta Gabryś-Barker, Dagmara Gałajda, 2016-05-23 This book introduces readers to the principles of a fairly new branch of psychology positive psychology and demonstrates how they can be applied in the context of second language acquisition in a natural environment and in instructed foreign language FL learning It focuses both on the well being and success of the learner and the professional and personal well being of the teacher Further the book stresses the importance of the positive emotions and character strengths of those involved in the process of language learning and teaching as well as the significant role played by enabling institutions such as school and at the micro level individual FL classes The Handbook of Second Language Acquisition Catherine J. Doughty, Michael H. Long, 2008-04-15 The Handbook of Second Language Acquisition presents an integrated discussion of key and sometimes controversial issues in second language acquisition research Discusses the biological and cognitive underpinnings of SLA mechanisms processes and constraints on SLA the level of ultimate attainment research methods and the status of SLA as a cognitive science Includes contributions from twenty seven of the world's leading scholars Provides an invaluable resource for all students and scholars of human cognition including those in linguistics psychology applied linguistics ESL foreign languages and cognitive science The Study of Second Language Acquisition Rod Ellis, 1994 This thorough introduction to second language research provides a comprehensive review of the research into learner language internal and external factors in language acquisition individual differences and classroom second language learning Routledge Encyclopedia of Language Teaching and Learning Michael Byram, 2004 This handbook deals with all aspects of contemporary language teaching and its history Produced for language teaching professionals it is also useful as a reference work for academic studies at postgraduate level

Self-Esteem and Foreign Language Learning Fernando Rubio, 2021-02-19 Self Esteem and Foreign Language Learning deals with a topic which has been given surprisingly little attention in Second and Foreign Language Acquisition studies Although there are several studies dealing with general education this volume addresses the need to take self esteem into consideration in the language classroom and adopts both theoretical research and practical perspectives with the hope of being useful for both researchers and practitioners The book is organized into three main parts Part I serves as an introduction to self esteem Part II reports on the existing literature about the theory and research dealing with self esteem and foreign language learning and Part III includes procedures for implementation and activities for classroom applications

Self Esteem and Foreign Language Learning is edited by Fernando Rubio PhD a researcher and teacher at the University of Huelva in Spain Most of the chapters have been written by members of the research group Affective factors in language learning which has also published a book on Multiple Intelligences and the teaching of English Dr Jane Arnold Dr Carmen Fonseca etc There are two outside contributions one is by Andrew Wright author of numerous publications for language teachers and the other by Veronica de Andr s teacher trainer from the University of El Salvador Argentina and member of the executive board of the International Council for Self Esteem Dr Elaine Horwitz of the University of Texas has contributed a preface

Individual Differences and Instructed Language Learning Peter Robinson,2002 Second language learners differ in how successfully they adapt to and profit from instruction This book aims to show that adaptation to L2 instruction and subsequent L2 learning is a result of the interaction between learner characteristics and learning contexts Describing and explaining these interactions is fundamentally important to theories of instructed SLA and for effective L2 pedagogy This collection is the first to explore this important issue in contemporary task based immersion and communicative pedagogic settings In the first section leading experts in individual differences research describe recent advances in theories of intelligence L2 aptitude motivation anxiety and emotion and the relationship of native language abilities to L2 learning In the second section these theoretical insights are applied to empirical studies of individual differences treatment interactions in classroom learning experimental studies of the effects of focus on form and incidental learning and studies of naturalistic versus instructed SLA

Lifelong Motivation and Foreign Language Learning Bérénice Darnault,2025-02-05 This book traces the motivational dynamics embedded within lifelong foreign language learning trajectories examining the factors which generate and sustain motivation throughout a learner s life Embracing a complexity approach it views motivation as a long term individual process that evolves along a narrative continuum developing over the course of life personal experiences choices and events This narrative inquiry delves into the captivating and unique experiences of three exceptionally motivated older adult learners who have embarked on a lifelong foreign language journey and maintained their momentum after 60 It will be relevant to researchers interested in third age language acquisition L2 motivation and the impact of additional language learning on wellbeing It also offers pedagogical guidance to optimise language education quality through better appreciation and anticipation of the autonomous third age learning experience

Teaching and Learning a Second Language Ernesto Macaro,2005-05-27 There is increasingly wide agreement among teachers researchers inspectors advisers and policy makers that both teaching and research will benefit from being brought closer together But how can this be achieved Hard pressed practioners cannot be expected to review a constant flow of conference papers journals and other publications even if such items were accessibly written This unique book synthesizes relevant research findings for the professional practioner and highlights their implications for the quality of teaching and learning Whether you are a teacher looking to improve your practice or a researcher looking for a concise overview of the literature this book will prove a valuable acquisition

Teaching and Researching Motivation Zoltán Dörnyei, Ema Ushioda, 2021-04-21 Cultivating motivation is crucial to a language learner's success and therefore crucial for the language teacher and researcher to understand The third edition of Teaching and Researching Motivation reflects the dramatic changes in the field of motivation research With an increased emphasis on dynamic perspectives on motivation and its relations with other individual social and contextual factors this book offers ways in which advances in the field can be put to practical use in the classroom and in research Key new features and material exploration of the motivation to learn languages other than English LOTE principles for designing L2 motivational studies discussion of emerging areas of research including unconscious motivation and language learning mindsets Providing a clear and comprehensive theory driven account of motivation Teaching and Researching Motivation examines how theoretical insights can be used in everyday teaching practice The final section provides a range of useful resources including relevant websites key reference works and an online repository of tools and instruments for researching language learning motivation Fully revised by pre eminent researchers in this field Zoltán Dörnyei and Ema Ushioda this is an invaluable resource for teachers and researchers alike
