Social Studies In The 1980s A Report Of Project Span:

Social Studies in the 1980s Irving Morrissett,1982 Social Studies in the 1980s Irving Morrissett, 1982 Selected and condensed portions of five reports prepared by Project SPAN Social Studies Priorities Practices and Needs are presented The purpose of Project SPAN was to describe and assess the current and recent state of social studies social science education designate desired states to which social studies might or should aspire and shape recommendations as to how those desired states might be approached There are four sections. The first section drawn mostly from the conclusion of an extensive report written by Hazel Whitman Hertzberg as historical background for the project describes efforts to reform social studies during the period 1880 1980 The second section focuses on the current state of five critical elements in social studies programming and instruction rationales goals and objectives curriculum patterns curriculum materials teachers and instructional practices The third section The Future of Social Studies describes in some detail the six major problems that SPAN staff and consultants believe need to be faced in the 1980s the desired states toward which social studies educators might strive and recommendations flowing from a comparison of current states and the problems associated with the desired states The fourth section describes one of the several major alternatives to the current pattern of social studies considered by the SPAN staff and consultants The alternative is a social roles approach to social studies Author RM Social Studies Project SPAN.,1982-01-01 The future of K 12 social studies is examined in this volume one in a series resulting from Project SPAN Social Studies Social Science Education Priorities Practices and Needs The report contains four sections The first section presents A Summary of Project SPAN The project reviewed and analyzed the current state of K 12 social studies in order to form a basis for recommendations for future directions that might be taken to improve social studies The five reports which were written as a result of Project SPAN are described The second section presents and examines Six Problems for Social Studies in the 1980s The problems concern student learning and valuing of social studies the culture of the school teaching practices the curriculum the social studies profession and public support. The focus of the third section is the Desired States for Social Studies The desired states for each of the problem areas identified in the second section are described Together the six desired states present a vision of an ideal state of social studies education The final section presents Recommendations for Social Studies in the 1980s The recommendations are organized to parallel the six problems and desired states Author RM Resources in Education ,1993 ERIC Clearinghouse Publications ,1982 SAGE Handbook of Education for Citizenship and Democracy James Arthur, Ian Davies, Carole Hahn, 2008-07-01 This handbook brings together new work by some of the leading authorities on citizenship education and is divided into five sections The first section deals with key ideas about citizenship education including democracy rights globalization and equity Section two contains a wide range of national case studies of citizenship education including African Asian Australian European and North and South American examples The third section focuses on perspectives about citizenship education with discussions about key areas such as sustainable development anti racism gender Section four provides insights into different characterisations of citizenship education with illustrations of democratic schools peace and conflict education global education human rights education etc The final section provides a series of chapters on the pedagogy of citizenship education with discussions about curriculum teaching learning and assessment

Martusewicz, William M. Revnolds, 2012-12-06 This engaging text examines issues in education and curriculum theory from multiple critical perspectives Students are encouraged to look at education from the inside the complex processes methods and relations that operate within schools and from the outside the larger social economic and political forces that have affected schools over time Each essay begins with Guiding Questions and concludes with Questions for Discussion Teachers as Researchers activities and Suggested Readings Informal Reasoning and Education James F. Voss, David N. Perkins, Judith W. Segal, 2012-11-12 Based on extensive reasoning acquisition research this volume provides theoretical and empirical considerations of the reasoning that occurs during the course of everyday personal and professional activities Of particular interest is the text s focus on the question of how such reasoning takes place during school activities and how students acquire reasoning skills Social Studies Review ,1990 Journal of Social Studies Research ,1994
