Education,1949 Report to the Board of Regents ... University of Michigan,1943 Rural Renaissance Edmund Albert Ford,1961 Political Modernization in the Gulf Shahid Jamal Ansari,1998 The entire Gulf is passing through a transitional phase The member states of the Gulf Cooperation Council GCC are witnessing change in varying degrees The change has become too evident from the 1960s It was oil more than any other factor which was responsible for a rapid transition Control over oil production and marketing have led to the strengthening of governmental role as owner and distributor of oil income The regions tribal society is being transformed into a modern society Political modernization is a recent phenomenon if the nature and extent of structural and informal transformations are taken into account Three broadly defined phases of political change can be discerned in the Arabian Peninsula the traditional the neo traditional and the modernizing or post traditional The modernizing phase was initiated by radical policies of socio economic development including the necessary restructuring of replacement of regimes and a redefinition or expansion of the scope and role of the state However the pace and direction of change is not clear enough The coming few decades are crucial in this regard

Accountability and Culture of School Teachers and Principals Zehava Rosenblatt,Theo Wubbels,2021-04-12

Accountability and Culture of School Teachers and Principals studies the degree to which teachers and principals in eight countries view themselves as taking responsibility working by clear standards reporting transparently and accepting feedback at work The book focuses on cultural values that explain variation in accountability levels of school educators drawing on data from Canada China Hungary Israel the Netherlands Spain South Africa and Zimbabwe It addresses the question of whether cultural values specifically collectivism and individualism are related to teachers and principals external and internal accountability dispositions It also explores the intriguing role of organizational support and key school personnel in school reforms across the world providing a new way to understand school accountability The book will be of great interest for academics post graduate students and scholars in the field of education policy and international and comparative studies in education The Educational System of the Federal Republic of Germany Paul S. Bodenman,1977 Post-Pandemic Social Studies Wayne Journell,2021 COVID 19 offers a unique opportunity to transform the K 12 social studies curriculum but history suggests that changes to the formal curriculum will not come easily or automatically This book was conceived in the space between the dismantling of our old way of life and the anticipation of what comes next The authors in this volume leading voices in social studies education make the case that COVID 19 has exposed deficiencies in much of the traditional narrative found in textbooks and state curriculum standards and they offer guidance for how educators can use the pandemic to pursue a more justice oriented critical examination of contemporary society Divided into two sections this volume first focuses on how elementary and secondary educators might teach about the pandemic both as a contentious public issue and as a recent historical event The second section asks teachers to reconsider many long standing aspects of social studies teaching and learning from content and instructional approaches to testing Book Features Guidance on how to teach about the COVID 19 crisis as a recent controversial historical event Examples of teaching approaches and classroom projects that align with the C3 Framework Lessons about COVID 19 for use in K 12 classrooms as well as chapters on the history of pandemics and on how teachers can help students cope with death and grief A critical examination of the idea of American exceptionalism the role of race and class in U S society and fundamental practices within social studies education
