Each chapter lists five key points to remember, questions for discussion and recommendations for further reading.

Working with Families Experiencing Vulnerability Susan Heward-Belle, Menka Tsantefski, 2023-05-09

Vulnerability is not a fixed state; people and families can move in and out of experiencing vulnerability throughout their lives. All families are at risk of experiencing vulnerability at some point, which means that social workers and other professionals must be equipped with the skills to effectively provide them with support. Working with Families Experiencing Vulnerability: A Partnership Approach provides a comprehensive evidence-based guide to family-centred practice for the social work, human services, health, and education professions. This edition has been comprehensively revised and features new chapters on working with families affected by natural disasters, families experiencing poverty, minority families, LGBTQIA families, and families where a parent has an intellectual disability. Emphasis is placed on promoting a rights-based relational approach to working with children and young people who are most at risk of experiencing vulnerability. Each chapter includes case studies, reflective questions, and activities.

Practising Welfare Rights Neil Bateman, 2006-02-01

Practising Welfare Rights aims to improve awareness among people working in social work and advice agencies about the skills required for effective welfare rights work and offers guidance for managers and other professionals about how to develop a welfare rights service. Written by a well-known author, trainer, and adviser on welfare rights issues, this book includes learning objectives, activities to test understanding, illustrative case studies. It also covers core welfare rights skills such as interviewing, legal research, negotiation, and advocacy and discusses the historical, social, and economic forces which have shaped welfare rights practice as well as the politics of welfare. An accessible book which highlights the place of welfare rights practice in modern society.

Navigating Human Services Organizations Rich Furman, Margaret Gibelman, Ren Winnett, 2020. It has been 17 years since the first edition of Navigating Human Service Organizations was published and about twenty years since Margaret Gibelman began working on a unique and engaging textbook that has been used in many dozens of classrooms. I did not participate in the initial writing of the book; I joined the project later. Yet shortly after it was released, I reviewed it for possible adoption for a practice class so can semi-dispassionately reflect upon the initial notes I made about the latest book of the director of the doctoral program from which I graduated.

Social Work with Children Gordon

Jack, Helen Donnellan, 2020-03-14. When working with children to promote their welfare and safeguard them from harm, the best course of action is not always clear Based on two of the most important organizing frameworks human ecology and child development this book provides an invaluable guide for working with a wide range of children The ultimate introductory companion to your children and families module Starting with an exploration of the knowledge base and contexts of social work practice with all children and their families this friendly guide moves on to demonstrate how knowledge base is applied in practice with specific groups from disabled children to young offenders This is an outstandingly clear and comprehensive guide to social work with children for students and practitioners in the field Navigating Human Service Organizations

Rich Furman,Margaret Gibelman,Ren Winnett,2020-07-31 Since its very inception social work has been considered an organizationally based profession with the majority of its workforce employed within formal organizations Whether in nonprofit for profit or governmental agencies the practical realities of human service organizations are a central element of professional social work This book explores the climate and culture of these agencies and provides essential information for surviving and thriving in this setting It prepares students for their future careers so that they will feel empowered in their work and be able to fulfill their responsibilities toward organizational community and social change Using real life examples the authors examine the internal structures of management financing and supervision and discuss common conflicts between agencies and professionals The book s straightforward tone and practical advice make it an asset to anyone entering human service organizations Sociology and Social Welfare Michael Sullivan,2018-07-20 Originally published in 1987

Sociology and Social Welfare looks at the relationship between state and welfare in the context of a wider sociological analysis of state and society in post war Britain The book looks at two main concerns the first suggests the ways in which the theory and practice of welfare might be made more reflective and self conscious if located in sociological understandings of state society and welfare The second suggests that the sociological study of social work and other welfare activities might lead to the development of a more sensitive and practice informed sociology Doing Critical Social Work Sophie

Goldingay,2020-07-25 Critical social work encourages emancipatory personal and social change This text focuses on the challenge of incorporating critical theory into the practice of social workers and provides case studies and insights from a range of fields to illustrate how to work with tensions and challenges Beginning with an outline of the theoretical basis of critical social work and its different perspectives the authors go on to introduce key features of working in this tradition including critical reflection Part II explores critical practices in confronting privilege and promoting social justice in social work examining such issues as human rights gender poverty and class Part III considers the development of critical practices within the organisational context of social work including the fields of mental health child and family services within Centrelink and prison settings Part IV is focused on doing anti discriminatory and anti oppressive practice in social work with particular populations including asylum seekers Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples domestic violence survivors older people and lesbian gay and transgender groups Finally Part V outlines collectivist and transformative practices in social
