Research Methods for Generalist Social Work Christine R.

Marlow,2023-02-28 Social work professionals must have a deep understanding of research methods to effectively serve their clients and communities In this comprehensive guide Christine Marlow emphasizes this link between research and practice She focuses on the relevance of research methods within agency work where most social work graduates will be employed rather than strictly an academic setting With a focus on generalist social work practice she offers a clear and concise overview of the research process including identifying research questions selecting appropriate research designs and analyzing data Using real world examples and case studies Marlow helps readers understand how research can be used to inform social work practice and drive positive change in communities With a strong emphasis on ethics and cultural competence this text prepares social work students and professionals to conduct research that is both effective and socially responsible

Best Practices for Social Work with Refugees and Immigrants Miriam Potocky,Mitra Naseh,2019-10-29

Social work practice with refugees and immigrants requires specialized knowledge of these populations and specialized adaptations and applications of mainstream services and interventions Because they are often confronted with cultural linguistic political and socioeconomic barriers these groups are especially vulnerable to psychological problems such as anxiety depression alienation grief and post traumatic stress disorder as well as concerns arising from inadequate health care Institutionalized discrimination and anti immigrant policies and attitudes only exacerbate these challenges The second edition of Best Practices for Social Work with Refugees and Immigrants offers an update to this comprehensive guide to social work with foreign born clients and an evaluation of various helping strategies and their methodological strengths and weaknesses Part 1 sets forth the context for evidence based service approaches for such clients by describing the nature of these populations relevant policies designed to assist them service delivery systems and culturally competent practice Part 2 addresses specific problem areas common to refugees and immigrants and evaluates a variety of assessment and intervention techniques in each area Using a rigorous evidence based and pancultural approach Miriam Potocky and Mitra Naseh identify best practices at the macro meso and micro levels to meet the pressing needs of uprooted peoples The new edition incorporates the latest research on contemporary social work practice with refugees and immigrants to provide a practical up to date resource for the multitude of issues and interventions for these populations

Social Work with Refugees, Asylum Seekers and Migrants Rachel Larkin, Lauren Wroe, Reima Ana Maglajlic, 2019-08-21 Social work is an international profession and is increasingly having to respond to the needs of displaced people and those impacted by immigration control systems This book will be a vital resource for service providers students and academics specifically those who provide services to people whose lives are impacted by borders
