Socialist Register Ralph Miliband, 1983-10-01 The Socialist Register, 1978 Ralph Miliband, John Saville, 1978-01-01 The Socialist Register John Saville, 1985 Class, Power and the State in Capitalist Society P. Wetherly, C. Barrow, P. Burnham, 2007-12-14 This collection of new essays re-examines and evaluates central themes in the work of Ralph Miliband a leading contributor to Marxist political theory in twentieth century It provides an essential reference point for research within the Marxist tradition and a valuable resource for students on a range of courses in political and social theory The Ellen Meiksins Wood Reader Ellen Meiksins Wood, Larry Patriquin, 2012-10-12 This Reader includes selections from Ellen Meiksins Wood's groundbreaking scholarship providing an overview of her original interpretations of capitalism precapitalist societies the state political theory democracy citizenship liberalism civil society the Enlightenment globalization imperialism and socialism Old Modes of Production and Capitalist Encroachment Wim Van Binsbergen, Peter Geschiere, 2013-10-28 First published in 1985 This book is the result of a long series of meetings of the Amsterdam Work group for Marxist Anthropology extending over a number of years starting from 1977 It has some changes and expansions from the original Dutch version The Communist Parties of Italy, France and Spain Peter Lange, Maurizio Vannicelli, 2021-06-29 First published in 1981 The Communist Parties of Italy France and Spain presents a comparative and integrative overview of the development of three Communist parties in the postwar Europe Through the systematic presentation of the most important documents of the Communist parties the book provides an access to the basic declarations and positions to illustrate the strategic and ideological evolution of these three parties in the advanced industrial democracies Eurocommunism the editors argue cannot be usefully understood as a phenomenon which suddenly appeared and equally as rapidly disappeared in the 1970s Rather it is a process of adaptation and change which characterizes the development of all three parties since World War II The explicitly comparative organisation of the documents into five basic themes general strategy alliances party organization international policy policy toward the communist movement allows the reader both to follow any single party in a specific policy area or to compare the parties in response to major domestic or international events of significance Rich in archival material this book will be an invaluable resource to scholars and researchers of European Politics comparative politics comparative communism and modern European history The Advance of African Capital Tom G. Forrest, 1994 Combining ethnographic and historical perspectives Tom Forrest examines the strategies and patterns of development employed by business people from the colonial period to the present Through a series of highly readable case studies he provides a broad picture of the various forms of capital accumulation and sectoral advances in trade transport manufacture agriculture finance and other services These are set within the context of changing economic opportunities shifts in power and policy relations with foreign capital and attitudes towards private business and the state The British Marxist Historians Harvey J. Kaye, 2022-09-30 The British Marxist Historians remains the first and most complete study of the founders of one of the most influential contemporary academic traditions in history and social theory In this classic text Kaye looks at Maurice Dobb and the debate on the transition to capitalism Rodney Hilton on feudalism and the English peasantry Christopher Hill on the English Revolution Eric Hobsbawm on workers peasants and world history and E P Thompson on the making of the English working class Kaye compares their perspective on history with other approaches such as that of the French Annales school and concludes with a discussion of the British Marxist historians contribution to the formation of a democratic historical consciousness The British Marxist Historians is an indispensable book for anyone interested in the intellectual history of the late twentieth century

Paying for the Welfare State in the 21st Century David Byrne, Sally Ruane, 2017-06-28 What does the future hold for the welfare state in the post industrial 21st century Political and economic forces are threatening the taxation regimes of highly globalised capitalist societies prompting an urgent debate around the function of the welfare state and how we pay for it In a challenge to current policy and thinking David Byrne and Sally Ruane deploy the concepts and analytical tools of Marxist political economy to better understand these developments and the possibilities they present for social change Using the SNP in Scotland as an illustrative case study current debates are related to a critical understanding of the relationship between taxation and spending issues that are fundamental to early 21st century politics and the future of the welfare state

Africa since Independence Paul Nugent, 2012-06-13 An indispensable introductory textbook that provides students with a genuinely comparative study of the different trajectories and experiences of independent African states Paul Nugent explores a range of key concerns including the impact of HIV and AIDS the contagion of warfare and efforts at achieving national reconciliation both in the past and today This is an ideal core text for modules on Modern African History African Politics or Africa since Independence or a supplementary text for broader modules on African History which may be offered at the upper levels of an undergraduate History Politics or African Studies degree In addition it is a crucial resource for students who may be studying modern African history for the first time as part of a taught postgraduate degree in African History African Politics or African Studies New to this Edition Revised and updated throughout in light of the latest research Reflects recent developments on issues such as AIDS urbanization the secession of South Sudan questions of citizenship and the importance of transnational spaces This second edition now features photographs

The Routledge Companion to Business History John Wilson, Steven Toms, Abe de Jong, Emily Buchnea, 2016-12-01 The Routledge Companion to Business History is a definitive work of reference and authoritative international source on business history Compiled by leading scholars in the field it offers both researchers and students an introduction and overview of current scholarship in this expanding discipline Drawing on a wealth of international contributions this volume expands the field and explores how business history interacts theoretically and methodologically with other fields It charts the origins and development of business history and its global reach from Latin America and Africa to North America and Europe With this multi perspective approach it illustrates the unique contribution of business history and its relationship with a range of other disciplines from finance and banking to gender issues in corporations The Routledge Companion to Business History is a vital source of reference for students and researchers in the fields of business history corporate governance and business ethics This collection is an excellent starting point for understanding the field and finding areas where business history management theory and social science can intersect Canadian Business History Newsletter January 2019 The Popular and the Political Michael Prior, 2013-04-15 The failure of the left in Britain to achieve its objectives in the past and the rapidly changing nature of popular involvement in politics in recent years both suggest the need for a reappraisal of socialist strategy in the 1980s The Popular and the Political explores the need to redefine socialism in terms which extend beyond statism which has been the mark of both the social democracy of the last two Labour governments and the Marxist left and which reflect the changing nature of contemporary Britain The essays presented here consider social policy in a wide range of fields health housing energy and economic planning as well as the broad questions of democratic involvement in the political process A Radical Green Political Theory Alan B. Carter, 1999 This volume is the first systematic comprehensive and cogent environmental political philosophy It will be of enormous value to all those with an interest in the environment political theory and moral and political philosophy Business Associations And The New Political Economy Of Thailand Anek Laothamatas, 2019-03-07 This book provides detailed empirical data regarding chambers of commerce their peak organizations and trade associations of Thailand that has moved away from a pure form of bureaucratic polity to liberal corporatism Critical Political Studies Colin Leys, 2002 A collective picture of modern capitalism suggests that economic prospects political costs and implications for human development and freedom under this system are grim indeed However the possibility of an alternative viewpoint and an alternative system provide grounds for optimism The authors in Critical Political Studies challenge the neo liberal pro market ideology that has arisen in the age of the so called post communist new world order wrestling with the implications of globalization democratization and the politics of radical social change Written as a tribute to the remarkable intellectual career of Colin Leys the debates in this book deal with some of the most pressing problems confronting the majority of citizens in both first world and third world contexts Their contributions provide the confidence to pursue new possibilities that permit a more optimistic if critical outlook Topics covered include contemporary debates about globalization and the nation state African development prospects for British socialism after Blair social movements and current issues in political and social theory Contributors include Laurie Adkin University of Alberta Abigail Bakan Bruce Berman Queen's University Manfred Bienefeld Carleton University Alex Callinicos University of York UK Bonnie Campbell University of Quebec at Montreal Michael Chege University of Florida Radhika Desai University of Victoria Lauren Dobell PhD candidate Oxford University Phil Goldman Queen's University Banu Helvacioğlu Bilkent University Turkey Robert Jessop University of Lancaster UK Colin Leys emeritus Queen's University Eleanor MacDonald Marguerite Mendell

Concordia University Leo Panitch York University Anne Phillips London School of Economics and Political Science and John Saul Atkinson College York University Onions Are My Husband Gracia Clark, 2010-01-15 In the most comprehensive analysis to date of the world of open air marketplaces of West Africa Gracia Clark studies the market women of Kumasi Ghana in order to understand the key social forces that generate maintain and continually reshape the shifting market dynamics Probably the largest of its kind in West Africa the Kumasi Central Market houses women whose positions vary from hawkers of meals and cheap manufactured goods to powerful wholesalers who control the flow of important staples Drawing on more than four years of field research during which she worked alongside several influential market Queens Clark explains the economic political gender and ethnic complexities involved in the operation of the marketplace and examines the resourcefulness of the market women in surviving the various hazards they routinely encounter from coups d etat to persistent sabotage of their positions from within Doctrines Of Development M. P. Cowen, 2003-09-02 Doctrines of Development sets out a critique of the idea of practice of development by exploring the history of development theory and action from the early nineteenth century to the late twentieth century from Britain to Quebec and Kenya Tanzania Andrew Coulson, 2013-07-25 Tanzania in the 1970s was at the forefront of policy innovation Near universal primary education access to health services and supplies of clean water subsequently became mainstream ambitions in Africa and elsewhere But its policies towards agricultural and industrial production failed and left the country in a particularly weak position when it faced the demands of structural adjustment in the 1980s This book originally published in 1982 has been reissued with a new introduction which brings its themes up to the present when income from gold mining and natural gas is making Tanzania one of the most dynamic economies in Africa today The author first an economic civil servant in Tanzania later an academic at the University of Dar es Salaam was in a unique position to write it drawing on his own experiences as well as the plethora of ideas and debates in Dar es Salaam in the 1970s The book has stood the test of time not only because of the range of material it covers but more profoundly because of the approach it takes to the work of Tanzania s founding president Julius Nyerere sympathetic to his ideas deeply critical of failures in implementation 25 short easily read chapters take the story of Tanzania from pre colonial times to the present and show how Nyerere was hemmed in by what he inherited from the German and British colonialists who ran the country up to Independence in 1961 It provides an invaluable introduction to anyone coming to the country for the first time and offers a profound assessment of the theoretical debates that have made Tanzania of such interest to students of development The Immanent Utopia Axel van den Berg, 2018-01-16 The spectacular growth in the 1970s and 1980s of the Marxist literature on politics and the state in capitalist society was hailed at the time as cumulative proof of Marxism s success in producing an effective theory of the political superstructure More generally it was seen as confirmation of the health and vigor of Marxist theory Axel van den Berg questions both of these claims Through comprehensive analysis of Marxist thought on bourgeois politics and the state from that produced by Marx himself on van den Berg radically challenges the viability of a distinctly Marxist theory of the state and of recent Marxist theorizing in general In an exhaustive review of the literature van den Berg shows that neo Marxist theories are for the most part not empirically testable To the extent that it is possible to draw any empirical implications from these theories at all such implications are virtually indistinguishable from those of bourgeois theories Van den Berg proceeds to lay bare the contradiction at the heart of Marxist theory in general it presupposes the viability and desirability of some ideal socialist society yet its anti utopian insistence that all criticisms of capitalism must rest on foundations immanent in capitalism itself prohibits any open discussion of such a utopia Now available in paperback this is a fundamental work for political and social theorists This work is brilliant in its polemical courage its originality and its detailed and revealing examination of texts Van den Berg demonstrates that postwar Marxist political theory and sociology is not only vague and contradictory but that it actually makes critical concessions to the bourgeois thought it claims to surpass Appearing in the midst of a far reaching reconsideration of the Marxism project in Europe this volume crystallizes these issues for North American social science Jeffrey Alexander University of California Los Angeles Van den Berg has made a major contribution to the long overdue relegation of Marxism to the museum of nineteenth century ideological antiquities Dennis Wrong Contemporary Sociology Axel van den Berg is a Dutch Canadian professor of sociology at McGill University in Montreal His most recent work is The Social Sciences and Rationality
