Narrative and Representation in the Poetry of Wallace Stevens D. Schwarz,1993-07-21 In this study Daniel R Schwarz argues that the narrative and representational aspects of Stevens s poetry have been neglected in favour of readings that stress his word play and rhetoricity Schwarz shows how Stevens s concept of representation is deeply influenced by modern painters such as Picasso and Duchamp He shows that Stevens s poetry needs to be understood in terms of a number of major contexts the American tradition of Emerson and Whitman the Romantic movement and the Modernist tradition The London Quarterly Review ,1869 An Analysis of Chinese Literature in the New Era Mao Nie,2025-07-31 An Analysis of Chinese Literature in the New Era serves as an essential window for international audiences to understand the rapid development of China over more than three decades and offers a critical interpretation of Chinese literature during this time Due to the multifaceted influences of politics economy and cultural traditions this literature has navigated an extraordinary path The complexity of the writers personalities the ambiguity the richness of artistic techniques and the obscurity of textual themes are all characteristic representations of the work These aspects have become part of the reflection of China s politics economy and culture following the reform and opening up policy infiltrating the daily lives of the Chinese people Chinese writers study and emulation of international authors have allowed Chinese literature in the new era to continue its progress on the path of modernization in world literature creating a unique landscape in the realm of Third World literature and solidifying the foundation for dialogue with First World literature The Quarterly Review ,1869
