Song Reader A Novel:

The Song Reader Lisa Tucker, 2005 The Song Reader Lisa Tucker, 2008-12-09 Mary Beth and her younger sister Leeann are trying to support themselves in their small Southern hometown So to make ends meet alongside her job at the diner Mary Beth works by practicing her own unique talent song reading By making sense of the song lyrics people have stuck in their heads Mary Beth can help them make sense of their lives In no time Mary Beth's readings have the entire town singing her praises including scientist Ben who falls hard for Mary Beth and her unearthly intuition But Mary Beth's gift leads her to a secret truth about a prominent neighbour and as a consequence the fragile structure of the girls orphaned life comes tumbling down around them Each secret seems to domino another until the sisters whole complex emotional history is laid bare And without Mary Beth's music the town's silence is louder than ever Could it be that the lyrics to all those foolish love songs really aren't so foolish after all Song in the Novel Jennifer Rushworth, Hannah Scott, Barry Ife, 2024-07-11 In Song in the Novel scholars of literature music and culture explore the presence of songs and singing in novels focusing on English French Italian Russian and Spanish examples from the seventeenth to the twenty first centuries Song Reader Lisa Tucker, 2003-05-01 Orphaned sisters Leeann and Mary Beth live in a small town with Leeann attending high school and Mary Beth working two jobs until Mary Beth's special gift for helping people with their problems uncovers their family's dark secret Proust's Songbook Jennifer Rushworth, 2024-06-04 In Proust's Songbook Jennifer Rushworth analyzes and theorizes the presence and role of songs in Marcel Proust's novel la recherche du temps perdu In Search of Lost Time Instead of focusing on instrumental music and large scale forms such as symphonies and opera as is common in Proust musical studies Rushworth argues for the centrality of songs and lyrics in Proust's opus Her work analyzes the ways in which the author inserted songs at key turning points in his novel and how he drew inspiration from contemporary composers and theorists of song Rushworth presents detailed readings of five moments of song in la recherche du temps perdu highlighting the songs significance by paying close attention to their lyrics music composers and histories Rushworth interprets these episodes through theoretical reflections on song and voice drawing particularly from the works of Reynaldo Hahn and Roland Barthes She argues that songs in Proust's novel are connected and resonate with one another across the different volumes yet also shows how song for Proust is a solo amateur and intimate affair In addition she points to Proust's juxtapositions of songs with meditations on the notion of mauvaise musique bad music to demonstrate the existence of a blurred boundary between songs that are popular and songs that are art According to Rushworth a song for Proust has a special relation to repetition and memory due to its typical brevity and that song itself becomes a mode of resistance in la Recherche especially on the part of characters in the face of family and familial expectations She also defines the songs in Proust's novel as songs of farewell noting that to sing farewell is a means to resist the very parting that is being expressed and demonstrates how songs in formal terms resist the forward impetus of narrative A Reader's Guide to the Novels of Louise Erdrich Peter
