Forbes,2021-06-28 There have been many great and enduring works of literature by Caribbean authors over the last century The Caribbean Contemporary Classics collection celebrates these deep and vibrant stories overflowing with life and acute observations about society Falling in the spaces between knowing and not knowing between silence and not speaking Told from the perspective of Marlene Songs of Silence is a vivid collection of reflections and recollections that meander through life in rural Jamaica observing the lives and bonds of its colourful boisterous inhabitants Rich poetical and profoundly contemplative the recollections transcend the gossip and intrigue the unsaid thoughts and silences to ossify in a maturation of selfhood It is not the Bam Baddam of Papacita but rather the murmur of the river this inexplicable river and its cool morning misty silence that settles across this collection singing to it and to the reader in a thoughtful lull and soft hum

who through their fieldwork experiences reflect on the epistemological political and personal implications of their own work To do so they focus on such topics as ethnography anthropologists engagement in identity politics representational practices the contexts of anthropological research and work and the effects of personal choices regarding self involvement in local causes that may extend beyond purely ethnographic goals General Technical Report PSW. ,2005 Malicroix Henri Bosco,2020-04-07 Fans of the style of William Faulkner will want to read Henri Bosco four time nominee for the Nobel Prize in Literature Available in English for the first time Malicroix tells the story of a recluse living in the French countryside unraveling how he came to a life of solitude Henri Bosco like his contemporary Jean Giono is one of the regional masters of modern French literature a writer who dwells above all on the grandeur beauty and ferocious unpredictability of the natural world Malicroix set in the early nineteenth century is widely considered to be Bosco s greatest book Here he invests a classic coming of age story with a wild mythic glamour A nice young man of stolidly unimaginative good bourgeois stock is surprised to inherit a house on an island in the Rh ne in the famously desolate and untamed region of the Camargue The terms of his great uncle s will are even more surprising the young man must take up solitary residence in the house for a full three months before he will be permitted to take possession of it With only a taciturn shepherd and his dog for occasional company he finds himself surrounded by the huge and turbulent river always threatening to flood the island and surrounding countryside and the wind battering at his all too fragile house shrieking from on high And there is another condition of the will a challenging task he must perform even as others scheme to make his house their own Only under threat can the young man come to terms with both his strange inheritance and himself Pierrette Cyril Scott,1912
