

Fourteen Lines Sonnet Poetry

If we must die, let it not be like hogs
Hunted and penned in an inglorious spot,
While round us bark the mad and hungry dogs,
Making their mock at our accursèd lot.
If we must die, O let us nobly die,
So that our precious blood may not be shed
In vain; then even the monsters we defy
Shall be constrained to honor us though dead!
O kinsmen! we must meet the common foe!
Though far outnumbered let us show us brave,
And for their thousand blows deal one death- blow!
What though before us lies the open grave?
Like men we'll face the murderous, cowardly pack,
Pressed to the wall, dying, but fighting back.³

Sonnets Poems By Edward Holmes:

Themes and Variations in Shakespeare's Sonnets J B Leishman, 2013-04-15 First published in 1961 This study analyses Shakespeare's treatment of the universal themes of Beauty Love and Time He compares Shakespeare with other great poets and sonnet writers Pindar Horace and Ovid with Petrarch Tasso and Ronsart with Shakespeare's own English predecessors and contemporaries notably Spenser Daniel and Drayton and with John Donne By discussing their resemblances and differences a not altogether orthodox picture of Shakespeare's attitude to life is presented which suggests that he was not as phlegmatic and equable a person as critics have often supposed

The Sonnets of Thomas Pringle Patrick Lenahan, 2023-07-17 When the Scottish poet Thomas Pringle emigrated to the Cape Colony in 1820 he voyaged also into a new creative life and an art responsive to his colonial home sterner verse for darker scenes Accompanying him to the Cape the sonnet became his most consistent choice for capturing his experiences and convictions his personal crises and the greater trauma of colonial appropriation and racial oppression In this study his unique contribution to the Romantic era sonnet is for the first time given its full due through readings that are as attentive to form and formal agency as to the cultural social and historical conditions in which they are enmeshed Moving beyond colonial theory to consider issues of literary migration this illuminating work shows how Pringle effectively opened up a radical conversation between the habitual modes of perception and response of British Romanticism and his new southern world

Poetry in Dialogue in the Duecento and Dante David Rowe, 2020-11-20 Poetry in Dialogue in the Duecento and Dante provides a new perspective on the highly networked literary landscape of thirteenth and fourteenth century Italy It demonstrates the fundamental role of dialogue between and within texts in the works of four poets who represent some of the major developments in early Italian literature Guittone d Arezzo Guido Guinizzelli Guido Cavalcanti and Dante Rather than reading the cultural landscape through the lens of Dante's works significant though they may be the first part of this study reconstructs the rich network of literary especially poetic dialogue that was at the heart of medieval writing in Italy The second part uses this reconstruction to demonstrate Dante's engagement with and indebtedness to the dynamics of exchange that characterised the practice of medieval Italian poets The overall argument for the centrality of dialogic processes to the emerging Italian literary tradition is underpinned by a conceptualisation of dialogue in relation to medieval and modern literary theory and philosophy of language By triangulating between Brunetto Latini's Rettorica Mikhail Bakhtin's dialogism and as sense of performative speech adapted from J L Austin Poetry in Dialogue shows the openness of its corpus to new dialogues and interpretations highlighting the instabilities of even the most apparently fixed monumental texts
