Sonoran Desert Spring:

Sonoran Desert Spring John Alcock,1985      When the Rains Come John Alcock,2009-04-17 Life in the desert is a waiting game waiting for rain And in a year of drought the stakes are especially high John Alcock knows the Sonoran Desert better than just about anyone else and in this book he tracks the changes he observes in plant and animal life over the course of a drought year Combining scientific knowledge with years of exploring the desert he describes the variety of ways in which the wait for rain takes place and what happens when it finally comes The desert is a land of five seasons featuring two summers hot dry months followed by monsoon and Alcock looks at the changes that take place in an entire desert community over the course of all five He describes what he finds on hikes in the Userly Mountains near Phoenix where he has studied desert life over three decades and where frequent visits have enabled him to notice effects of seasonal variation that might escape a casual glance Blending a personal perspective with field observation Alcock shows how desert ecology depends entirely on rainfall He touches on a wide range of topics concerning the desert s natural history noting the response of saguaro flowers to heat and the habits of predators whether soaring red tailed hawk or tiny horned lizard He also describes unusual aspects of insects that few desert hikers will have noticed such as the disruptive color pattern of certain grasshoppers that is more effective than most camouflage When the Rains Come is brimming with new insights into the desert from the mating behaviors of insects to urban sprawl and features photographs that document changes in the landscape as drought years come and go It brings us the desert in the harshest of times and shows that it is still teeming with life      South Mountain Park and Preserve Andrew Lenartz,2021-09 A true southwestern treasure this all inclusive guide to South Mountain Park and Preserve encourages readers to discover the nature and adventure available in this massive outdoor playground      Aridland Springs in North America Lawrence E. Murray Springs C. Vance Haynes, Bruce B. Huckell, 2022-04-05 The Murray Springs Site in the upper San Pedro River Valley of southeast Arizona is one of the most significant Clovis sites ever found It contained a multiple bison kill a mammoth kill and possibly a horse kill in a deeply stratified sedimentary context Scattered across the buried occupation surface with the bones of late Pleistocene animals were several thousand stone tools and waste flakes from their manufacture and repair Because of the unique occurrence of an algal black mat that buried the Clovis age surface immediately after abandonment the distributional integrity of the artifacts and debitage clusters is exceptional for Paleoindian sites Excavation of the Clovis hunters camp 50 to 150 meters south of the kills revealed artifactual evidence typical of hunting camp activity including hide working and weapons repair Impact flakes conjoining with Clovis points clearly tied the camp to the bison kill The unique nature of the site and this comprehensive study of the excavated material constitute one of the most important contributions to our knowledge of Paleoindian hunters in the New World

Getting Over the Color Green Scott Slovic, 2001 Desert vistas are often deemed vacant inhospitable wastelands Don t suggest that to Joy Harjo Pat Mora or other contemporary southwestern writers In these arid stretches often devoid of green today's southwestern writers see pyrotechnic colors and Gothic shapes that excite and often overwhelm the imagination And they capture this excitement in words that fix these desert images in the minds of readers who may too often look at the world through green colored glasses This anthology of contemporary nature writing from the Greater Southwest brings together a host of writers including peers of Edward Abbey such as Charles Bowden and Ann Zwinger and representatives of a new generation of writers such as Rick Bass and Terry Tempest Williams The book is an eclectic blend of nonfiction and fiction field notes and poetry through which artists of diverse backgrounds both celebrate and illuminate the unique vitality and complexity of southwestern literature proving that green is only one of many colors on their palette The selections included here range all across the southwestern landscape and explore adventures in the wild topics in natural history living close to the land and efforts at conservation and restoration They clearly demonstrate that there is grace and beauty in this often maligned part of the world both in the human traditions that have developed in the region and in the natural features of the desert itself     The National Gazetteer of the United States of America Geological Survey (U.S.),1987
