Sotto Il Sole Giaguaro Italo Calvino, 1986      Sotto Il Sole Giaguaro [Under the Jaguar Sun] Italo Calvino, 2011-06
Traditional Chinese edition of Sotto il sole giaguaro Under the Jaguar Sun a classic by Italo Calvino This is Calvino's last work and it is finally translated into Chinese In Traditional Chinese Distributed by Tsai Fong Books Inc      Italo Calvino
Tommasina Gabriele, 1994 She uncovers the apparent contradiction that while Calvino repeatedly advocated throughout his career of forty plus years a precise language this call for precision did not extend to erotic subject matter where Calvino sometimes felt that direct representation was virtually impossible Gabriele finds that in Calvino the challenge of erotic representation is linked to the complexity of the writer's role especially as articulated in Calvino's famous article Cibernetica e fantasmi      Under the Radiant Sun and the Crescent Moon Angela M. Jeannet, 2000-01-01 Understanding Italo Calvino's love of storytelling is pivotal to understanding the cultural and literary matrix of his lush fictional universe A rich and vibrant critical portrait of Calvino's work      Italo Calvino Italo Calvino, 2013-06-17 The first collection of letters in English by one of the great writers of the twentieth century This is the first collection in English of the extraordinary letters of one of the great writers of the twentieth century Italy's most important postwar novelist Italo Calvino 1923-1985 achieved worldwide fame with such books as Cosmicomics Invisible Cities and If on a Winter's Night a Traveler But he was also an influential literary critic an important literary editor and a masterful letter writer whose correspondents included Umberto Eco Primo Levi Gore Vidal Leonardo Sciascia Natalia Ginzburg Michelangelo Antonioni Pier Paolo Pasolini and Luciano Berio This book includes a generous selection of about 650 letters written between World War II and the end of Calvino's life Selected and introduced by Michael Wood the letters are expertly rendered into English and annotated by well known Calvino translator Martin McLaughlin The letters are filled with insights about Calvino's writing and that of others about Italian American English and French literature about literary criticism and literature in general and about culture and politics The book also provides a kind of autobiography documenting Calvino's Communism and his resignation from the party in 1957 his eye opening trip to the United States in 1959-60 his move to Paris where he lived from 1967 to 1980 and his trip to his birthplace in Cuba where he met Che Guevara Some lengthy letters amount almost to critical essays while one is an appropriately brief defense of brevity and there is an even shorter reassuring note to his parents written on a scrap of paper while he and his brother were in hiding during the antifascist Resistance This is a book that will fascinate and delight Calvino fans and anyone else interested in a remarkable portrait of a great writer at work      The Flavors of Modernity Gian-Paolo Biasin, 2017-03-14
From Rabelais's celebration of wine to Proust's madeleine and Virginia Woolf's boeuf en daube in To the Lighthouse food has figured prominently in world literature But perhaps nowhere has it played such a vital role as in the Italian novel In a book flowing with descriptions of recipes ingredients fragrances country gardens kitchens dinner etiquette and even hunger Gian Paolo Biasin examines food images in the modern Italian novel so as to unravel their function and meaning As a sign for cultural values and social and economic relationships food becomes a key to appreciating the textual richness of works such as Lampedusa's The Leopard Manzoni's The Betrothed Primo Levi's Survival in Auschwitz and Calvino's Under the Jaguar Sun. The importance of the culinary sign in fiction argues Biasin is that it embodies the oral relationship between food and language while creating a sense of materiality. Food contributes powerfully to the reality of a text by making a fictional setting seem credible and coherent: a Lombard peasant eats polenta in The Betrothed whereas a Sicilian prince offers a monumental macaroni timbale at a dinner in The Leopard. Similarly, Biasin shows how food is used by writers to connote the psychological traits of a character to construct a story by making the protagonists meet during a meal and even to call attention to the fictionality of the story with a metanarrative description. Drawing from anthropology, psychoanalysis, sociology, science, and philosophy, the author gives special attention to the metaphoric and symbolic meanings of food. Throughout, he blends material culture with observations on thematics and narrativity to enlighten the reader who enjoys the pleasures of the text as much as those of the palate. Originally published in 1993, The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print-on-demand technology to again make available previously out-of-print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press. These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions. The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905.

Postmodern Artistry in Medievalist Fiction Earl R. Anderson, 2018-06-09 Focusing on modern-day fiction set in the Middle Ages or that incorporates medieval elements, this study examines storytelling components and rhetorical tropes in more than 60 works in five languages by more than 40 authors. Medievalist fiction got its postmodern start with such authors as Calvino, Fuentes, Carpentier, and Eco. Its momentum increased since the 1990s with writers whose work has received less critical attention, like Laura Esquivel, Tariq Ali, Matthew Pearl, Matilde Asensi, Ildefonso Falcones, Andrew Davison, Bernard Cornwell, Donna Woolf, and Cross. Ariana Franklin, Nicole Griffith, Levi Grossman, Conn Iggulden, Edward Rutherfurd, Javier Sierra, Alan Moore, and Brenda Vantrease. The author explores a wide range of medievalizing tropes, discusses the negative responses of postmodernism, and posits four hard problems in medievalist fiction.

Painting with Words, Writing with Pictures Franco Ricci, 2001-01-01 Ricci's book ranges widely over Calvino's oeuvre to illustrate the accuracy of the idea articulated by Calvino himself that a visual image lies at the origin of all his narrative. The book's main theme is the difficult interface between word and image that Calvino struggled with throughout his career: the act of perception that rendered visible that which was invisible and transformed what was seen into what is read. Ricci holds that Calvino's narrative has an imagocentric program and that his literary strategy is ekphrastic, i.e., it is characterized by literary description of visual representation, real or imaginary. The book is interdisciplinary in nature and will interest not only scholars of literature but also those who work with the visual arts and with information technology.

the dialogue of literature and science that forms a central part of the work of Italo Calvino one of Italy's best known contemporary authors It provides an in depth study of Calvino's interest in scientific models and methods and the ways these have informed his narratives

Image, Eye and Art in Calvino Birgitte Grundtvig, 2017-07-05 Few recent writers have been as interested in the cross over between texts and visual art as Italo Calvino 1923-85 Involved for most of his life in the publishing industry he took as much interest in the visual as in the textual aspects of his own and other writers books In this volume twenty international Calvino experts including Barengi Battistini Belpoliti Hofstadter Ricci Scarpa and others consider the many facets of the interplay between the visual and textual in Calvino's works from the use of colours in his fiction to the influence of cartoons from the graphic qualities of the book covers themselves to the significance of photography and landscape in his fiction and non fiction The volume is appropriately illustrated with images evoked by Calvino's major texts

Approaches to Teaching the Works of Italo Calvino Franco Ricci, 2013-01-01 Italo Calvino whose works reflect the major literary and cultural trends of the second half of the twentieth century is known for his imagination humor and technical virtuosity He explores topics such as neorealism folktale fantasy and social and political allegory and experiments with narrative style and structure Students take delight in Calvino's wide ranging and inventive work whether in Italian courses or in courses in comparative or world literature literary criticism cultural studies philosophy or even architecture Given the range of his writing teaching Calvino can seem a daunting task This volume aims to help instructors develop creative and engaging classroom strategies Part 1 Materials presents an overview of Calvino's writings nearly all of which are available in English translation as well as critical works and online resources The essays in part 2 Approaches focus on general themes and cultural contexts address theoretical issues and provide practical classroom applications Contributors describe strategies for teaching Calvino that are as varied as his writings whether having students study narrative theory through If on a winter's night a traveler explore literary genre with Cosmicomics improve their writing using Six Memos for the Next Millennium or read Mr Palomar in a general education humanities course

Literary Philosophers Jorge J. E. Gracia (ed), Carolyn Korsmeyer, Rodolphe Gasché, 2002 First published in 2002 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informal company

Exercises in Constructive Imagination Ermanno Bencivenga, 2012-12-06 Philosophy in this century has often self consciously presented itself as aiming at the destruction or deconstruction of the philosophical tradition or even of theorizing as such The basis for such self description may well be a deep seated anxiety about death but whatever its grounds the procession of distinguished intellectuals who seem mostly concerned with who gets to turn off the light on philosophy on his/her way out is one main reason why philosophy seems to have lost its grip on public opinion and public policy Which is ironical because there is often considerable constructive work going on under the pretence of all this destruction but the superficial rhetoric has more currency and impact than the substance of that work This book brings back the spirit of bold imaginative even outrageous theorizing into philosophy and contains a series of examples of it venturing playfully into quantum mechanics and political theory psychoanalysis and environmental ethics philosophy of language and sociology without any attempt at systematically exhausting these disparate fields but rather using them as suggestive excuses and arenas for the display of intellectual creativity There are numerous echoes among the various pieces and between them and other works by the same author but again these resonances are not systematized The result is more to be seen as a collection of snapshots of an intellectual landscape than as a hierarchical regimentation of it      (Post)Colonial Passages Silvia Albertazzi, Francesco Cattani, Rita Monticelli, Federica Zullo, 2019-01-15

While entailing a subversive re vision of colonial histories geographies and subjectivities the post colonial condition has unleashed a chain of movements relocations and re writings that interrogate the globalized and neoliberal society Ethnic racial religious gendered and sexual identities have been called into question and requested to re define name and re name themselves to find new ways to tell their stories histories The very term postcolonial has triggered well known controversial debates its adoption is significant of a cultural politics involving the colonial past controversial crisis in the present and an open perspective toward alternative futures Confronting literature and the arts from a postcolonial perspective is a critical and political task involving theories and cultural productions crossing barriers amongst fields of knowledge The essays gathered here discuss postcolonialism as a transdisciplinary field of passages that negotiate among diverse yet interrelated cultural fields      Calvino and the Pygmalion Paradigm Bridget Tompkins, 2015-06-28

Calvino and the Pygmalion Paradigm Fashioning the Feminine in I nostri antenati and Gli amori difficili is the first book length analysis of the representation of the feminine in Calvino's fiction Using the structural umbrella of the Pygmalion paradigm and using feminist interpretative techniques this book offers interesting alternative readings of two of Calvino's important early narrative collections The Pygmalion paradigm concerns the creation by a male artist of a feminine ideal and highlights the artificiality and narcissistic desire associated with the creation process This book discusses Calvino's active and deliberate work of self creation accomplished through extensive self commentaries and exposes both the lack of importance Calvino placed on the feminine in his narratives and the relative absence of critical attention focused on this area Relying on the analogy between Pygmalion's pieces of ivory and Barthes's semes and drawing upon the ideas underlying Kristeva's intertextuality the book demonstrates that despite Calvino's professed lack of interest in character development his female characters are carefully and purposefully constructed A close reading of Calvino's narratives engaging directly with Freud Lacan and the feminist psychoanalytical thinking of Kofmann Kristeva Kaplan and others demonstrates how Calvino uses his female characters as foils for the existential reflections of his typically maladjusted and narcissistic male characters      Haunting and Spectrality in Neo-Victorian Fiction R. Arias, P. Pulham, 2009-11-27

Exploring the pervasive presence of the Victorian past in contemporary culture these essays use the trope of haunting and spectrality as a critical tool with which to consider neo Victorian works as well as our ongoing fascination with the Victorians combining original readings of well known novels with engaging analyses of lesser known works      The Feminist Encyclopedia of Italian Literature Rinaldina Russell,1997-07-16

Over the last 20 years there has been an increasing interest in feminist views of the Italian literary tradition While feminist theory and methodology have been accepted by the academic community in the U S the situation is very different in Italy where such work has been done largely outside the academy Among nonspecialists knowledge of feminist approaches to Italian literature and even of the existence of Italian women writers remains scant This reference work the first of its kind on Italian literature is a companion volume for all who wish to investigate Italian literary culture and writings both by women and by men in light of feminist theory Included are alphabetically arranged entries for authors schools movements genres and forms figures and types and similar topics related to Italian literature from the Middle Ages to the present Each entry is written by an expert contributor and summarizes feminist thought on the subject Entries provide brief bibliographies and the volume concludes with a selected general bibliography of major studies This volume covers eight centuries of Italian literature from the Middle Ages to the present Included are entries for major canonical male authors such as Dante Petrarch and Boccaccio as well as for female writers such as Lucrezia Marinella and Gianna Manzini These entries discuss how the authors have shaped the image of women in Italian literature and how feminist criticism has responded to their works Entries are also provided for various schools and movements such as deconstruction Marxism and new historicism for genres and forms such as the epic devotional works and misogynistic literature for figures and types such as the enchantress the witch and the shepherdess and for numerous other topics Each entry is written by an expert contributor summarizes the relationship of the topic to feminist thought and includes a brief bibliography The volume closes with a selected general bibliography of major studies      The Author in Criticism Elio Attilio Baldi,2020-03-11

The Author in Criticism Italo Calvino s Authorial Image in Italy the United States and the United Kingdom explores the cultural and historic patterns and differences in the critical readings of Italian author Italo Calvino s works in the United States of America the United Kingdom and Italy It considers the external factors that contribute to create recognizable patterns in the readings of Calvino s texts in different contexts This volume therefore covers most notably matters of genre science fiction postmodernism cultural perceptions and conventions the re current image of the author in different media academic schools curricula and canons biographical information such as gender and background and translation and the language in which the author speaks or fails to speak to us It traces the influence of these aspects in the academic discourse on Calvino The Author in Criticism also analyzes Calvino s various professional roles as writer editor essayist journalist private correspondent and public cosmopolitan intellectual reappraising their often little acknowledged importance for academic criticism An important underlying idea is that the preconceived image that every critic has of Calvino before even opening one of his books is often solidified and repeated even in the most refined and complex critical analyses This volume purposefully foregrounds the textual and non textual parts that are usually considered peripheral to the works of an author such as book covers blurbs reviews talks interviews etc In this way this book provides insight into the reception of Calvino s works in different countries Moreover it forms a broader reflection of and on important constants in the workings of literary criticism and on the way academic discourses have developed in various cultural contexts over the last decades

Modern Conflict and the Senses Nicholas J. Saunders, Paul Cornish, 2017-03-16 Modern Conflict and the Senses investigates the sensual worlds created by modern war focusing on the sensorial responses embodied in and provoked by the materiality of conflict and its aftermath The volume positions the industrialized nature of twentieth century war as a unique cultural phenomenon in possession of a material and psychological intensity that embodies the extremes of human behaviour from total economic mobilization to the unbearable sadness of individual loss Adopting a coherent and integrated hybrid approach to the complexities of modern conflict the book considers issues of memory identity and emotion through wartime experiences of tangible sensations and bodily requirements This comprehensive and interdisciplinary collection draws upon archaeology anthropology military and cultural history art history cultural geography and museum and heritage studies in order to revitalize our understandings of the role of the senses in conflict
