Soul Is Here For Its Own Joy:

The Sibling Society Robert Bly, 1997-05-27 Where have all the grownups gone In answering that question with the same freewheeling erudition and intuitive brilliance that made Iron John a national bestseller poet storyteller and translator Robert Bly tells us that we live in a sibling society in which adults have regressed into adolescence and adolescents refuse to grow up

The Love of Impermanent Things Mary Rose O'Reilley, 2006 At midlife Mary Rose O'Reilley reflects on her past and her hard won sense of self She is determined now not to sacrifice or waste her self She has struggled for years along the paths set by her suburban childhood her Catholic upbringing her failed marriage and the mute duties of daughterhood Now she is trying to see the world through the eyes of the deer that stop outside her window and look in at her As a wildlife rehabilitator she feels a closer connection to the natural world as experienced by animals As an apprentice potter she sees in a Japanese tea bowl the ultimate balance of action and contemplation As a Quaker she can both sit still and sing And as a writer O'Reilley can speak clearly to readers at midlife who are expected to know it all but don't

Risking Everything Roger Housden, 2007-12-18 Listen are you breathing just a little and calling it a life Mary Oliver This luminous anthology brings together great poets from around the world whose work transcends culture and time Their words reach past the outer divisions to the universal currents of love and revelation that move and inspire us all These poems urge us to wake up and love They also call on us to relinquish our grip on ideas and opinions that confine us and instead to risk moving forward into the life that is truly ours In his selection Roger Housden has placed strong emphasis on contemporary voices such as the American poet laureate Billy Collins and the Nobel Prize winners Czeslaw Milosz and Seamus Heaney but the collection also includes some timeless echoes of the past in the form of work by masters such as Goethe Wordsworth and Emily Dickinson The tens of thousands of readers of Roger Housden's Ten Poems series will welcome this beautiful harvest of poems that both open the mind and heal the heart

The Fifth Season Mark Nepo, 2025-07-15 Now in his seventies poet and philosopher Mark Nepo explores the rhythms of aging in the second half of life As the years go by the question for each of us becomes more and more real What does it mean to age Despite the limitations that come as the body wears down Mark Nepo believes that there are many gifts to inhabit by aging So much is gained and so much is shed along the way As Mark began to reflect on the gifts and challenges of this process we're all immersed in he realized more than ever that we are called to live a creative life as we age We are led to what the Chinese call the fifth season that moment in late summer when the glare of the sun fades so that we can see clearly the true colors around us The Fifth Season offers Mark's wise and gentle insights on growing older helping readers identify the second half of life as a turning point a time of integration and transformation that guides us in making sense of our experiences All seasons lead to this season all experiences lead to this understanding of experience In truth Mark writes we each must face living and dying from the inside of the one life we are given But we can share the journey which is the purpose of this book to be a companion in your effort to enter the fifth season of your life

Nature and the Human Soul Bill Plotkin, 2010-10-04 Addressing the pervasive longing for meaning and fulfillment in this time of crisis Nature and the Human Soul introduces a visionary ecopsychology of human development that reveals how fully and creatively we can mature when soul and wild nature guide us Depth psychologist and wilderness guide Bill Plotkin presents a model for a human life span rooted in the cycles and qualities of the natural world a blueprint for individual development that ultimately yields a strategy for cultural transformation If it is true as Plotkin and others observe that we live in a culture dominated by adolescent habits and desires then the enduring societal changes we so desperately need won't happen until we individually and collectively evolve into an engaged authentic adulthood With evocative language and personal stories including those of elders Thomas Berry and Joanna Macy this book defines eight stages of human life Innocent Explorer Thespian Wanderer Soul Apprentice Artisan Master and Sage and describes the challenges and benefits of each Plotkin offers a way of progressing from our current egocentric aggressively competitive consumer society to an ecocentric soul based one that is sustainable cooperative and compassionate At once a primer on human development and a manifesto for change Nature and the Human Soul fashions a template for a more mature fulfilling and purposeful life and a better world

Powerful Beyond Measure Nick Williams, 2014-07-30 For many of us the word power conjures up disturbing feelings of control and dominance of winning at all costs and often at the expense of others Indeed from our earliest days this is how we have been taught to view the world in order to survive it is at the heart of the story of man's evolution and at the heart of much conflict and pain But now in Powerful Beyond Measure Nick Williams reveals the basis of a different kind of power a power that does not rely on winners or losers but on a love that feeds our soul and a faith that frees us from the need to control Here as he draws upon fascinating case studies and timeless wisdom Nick reveals how we can Access the innate spiritual power that lies within each of us to find strength and inspiration every day of our lives Experience true connection with the world around us as we learn to trust ourselves and others Abandon our fears and doubts in order to discover the essence of who we truly are and all that we have to offer Complete with sound practical advice and based on his experience as one of our most sought after personal coaches Nick Williams illuminates the path to a more rewarding life of hope forgiveness and freedom a life that is powerful beyond measure Read and learn how to save your life live in your heart and let the magic happen Bernie Siegel author of Love Medicine and Miracles
