and other musicians Its second part is framed by a consideration of various cultural political and economic developments in both the Republic of Ireland and Northern Ireland from the 1920s including the Troubles of 1968 1998 Focusing on scoring and other aspects of soundtrack production for domestic newsreel documentary film and TV programming it interprets the substantial output of many Irish composers within this milieu particularly from the 1960s to the 1990s Also referring to broader cultural and historical themes the book s third and final part charts approaches to and developments in music and sound design over various waves of Irish cinema from its relatively late emergence in the 1970s to an exponential growth and increasingly transnational orientation in the early decades of the 21st century
