La guerre en terre maya Yvon Lebot, 1992-01-01 Cette tude place le Guatemala au centre du plus grand probl me du XXe si cle celui des rapports de compl mentarit ou d antagonisme entre les deux grandes forces d cha n es par notre temps les luttes de classe et les luttes nationales crit A Touraine

Essor Monumental et Dynamiques des Populations : la cit  Maya de Naachtun (Guatemala) au Classique Ancien (150-550 apr. J.-C.) Julien Hiquet, 2025-09-11 Naachtun was a major Maya capital during the Early Classic period 150 550 CE marked by impressive monumental architecture This book explores how such construction influenced urban demographics showing that architectural grandeur attracted and anchored a growing population

Extremely Violent Societies Christian Gerlach, 2010-10-14 In this groundbreaking book Christian Gerlach traces the social roots of the extraordinary processes of human destruction involved in mass violence throughout the twentieth century He argues that terms such as genocide and ethnic cleansing are too narrow to explain the diverse motives and interests that cause violence to spread in varying forms and intensities From killings and expulsions to enforced hunger collective rape strategic bombing forced labour and imprisonment he explores what happened before during and after periods of widespread bloodshed in countries such as Armenia Indonesia Bangladesh Nazi occupied Greece and in anti guerilla wars worldwide in order to highlight the crucial role of socio economic pressures in the generation of group conflicts By focussing on why so many different people participated in or supported mass violence and why different groups were victimized he offers us a new way of understanding one of the most disturbing phenomena of our times

Glocal Religions Victor Roudometof, 2018-11-07 This book is a printed edition of the Special Issue Glocal Religions that was published in Religions

The Mauritian Novel Julia Waters, 2019-01-08 This book analyses how the idea or the problem of belonging is articulated in a range of contemporary francophone Mauritian novels Waters explores how forms of affective belonging intersect with the exclusionary politics of belonging in novels by Nathacha Appanah Ananda Devi Shenaz Patel Bertrand de Robillard Amal Sewtohul and Carl de Souza

Ungendering Civilization K. Anne Pyburn, 2004-02-24 With nine papers examining a distinct body of archaeological data Ungendering Civilization offers a much needed scrutiny of the role of women in the evolution of states Studying societies including Predynastic Egypt Minoan Crete ancient Zimbabwe and the Maya to determine what the facts actually show the contributors critically address traditional views of male and female roles and argue for the possibility that the root historical cause of gender subordination is participation in modern world system rather than innate tendencies to domesticity and child rearing in women and leadership and aggression in men With an interdisciplinary potential students of archaeology cultural studies and gender studies will find this full of useful information

In Search of Providence Patricia Foxen, 2020-09-15 In the mid 1990s Patricia Foxen traveled back and forth between the Guatemalan highlands and Providence Rhode Island to understand the migration paths of K iche Mayan Indians who had fled the Guatemalan civil war to work in the factories and fisheries of New England More than two decades later many

Mayans are still migrating to the US today part of the border crisis that prompted the Trump administration's ruthless immigration and asylum policy backlash As Foxen argues the recent surge in Mayan border crossings must be contextualized within both the longer history of violence marginality and exclusion that has long led Guatemala's Indigenous populations to be survivors on the move as well as contemporary push factors such as climate change and growing inequality that have forced people from their communities And yet one of the most significant drivers of continued emigration today ironically is the very culture of migration described in the book that has accelerated social change within many Indigenous communities setting in motion a complex series of economic and cultural shifts that have compelled a continuous movement of people and generations to the US Reading this story in 2020 at a time of massive growth in flows of irregular migrations around the world can help us better understand the highly complex set of factors that propel long term migrations and that shape transnational communities on both sides of the border In Search of Providence offers a layered historically grounded perspective that speaks to the local specificity behind the migration experience in order to point to the universal themes and contradictions of contemporary global displacements Maya Peter J. Schmidt, Mercedes de la Garza, Enrique Nalda, 1998

Terror in the Land of the Holy Spirit Virginia Garrard-Burnett, 2010-01-15 Waging a counterinsurgency war and justified by claims of an agreement between Guatemala and God Guatemala's Evangelical Protestant military dictator General R os Montt incited a Mayan holocaust over just 17 months some 86 000 mostly Mayan civilians were murdered Virginia Garrard Burnett dives into the horrifying bewildering murk of this episode the Western hemisphere's worst twentieth century human rights atrocity She has delivered the most lucid historical account and analysis we yet possess of what happened and how of the cultural complexities personalities and local and international politics that made this tragedy Garrard Burnett asks the hard questions and never flinches from the least comforting answers Beautifully movingly and clearly written and argued this is a necessary and indispensable book Francisco Goldman author of The Art of Political Murder Who Killed the Bishop Virginia Garrard Burnett's Terror in the Land of the Holy Spirit is impressively researched and argued providing the first full examination of the religious dimensions of la violencia a period of extreme political repression that overwhelmed Guatemala in the 1980s Garrard Burnett excavates the myriad ways Christian evangelical imagery and ideals saturated political and ethical discourse that scholars usually treat as secular This book is one of the finest contributions to our understanding of the violence of the late Cold War period not just in Guatemala but throughout Latin America Greg Grandin Professor of History New York University Drawing on newly available primary sources including guerrilla documents evangelical pamphlets speech transcripts and declassified US government records Virginia Garrard Burnett provides a fine grained picture of what happened during the rule of Guatemalan president by coup Efra n R os Montt She suggests that three decades of war engendered an ideology of violence that cut not only vertically but also horizontally across class cultures communities religions and even families The book examines the causality and effects of the ideology of violence but it also explores the long dur e of Guatemalan history between 1954 and the late 1970s that made such an ideology possible More significantly she contends that self interest willful ignorance and distraction permitted the human rights tragedies within Guatemala to take place without challenge from the outside world The North British Review ,1869
