Territories, Environments, Politics Andrea Mubi Brighenti, Mattias Kärrholm, 2022-04-19 This collection seeks to illustrate the state of the art in territoriological research both empirical and theoretical The volume gathers together a series of original previously unpublished essays exploring the newly emerging territorial formations in culture politics and society While the globalisation debate of the 1990s largely pivoted around a general deterritorialisation hypothesis since the 2000s it has become apparent that rather than effacing territories global connections are added to them and represent a further factor in the increase of territorial complexity Key questions follow such as How can we further the knowledge around territorial complexities and the ways in which different processes of territorialisation co exist and interact integrating scientific advances from a plurality of disciplines Where and what forms does territorial complexity assume and how do complex territories operate in specific instances Which technological political and cultural facets of territories should be tackled to make sense of the life of territories How and by what different or combined methods can we describe territories and do justice to their articulations and meanings How can the territoriological vocabulary relate to contemporary social theory advancements such as ANT the ontological turn the mobilities paradigm sensory urbanism and atmospheres research How can territorial phenomena be studied across disciplinary boundaries Territories Environments Politics casts a fresh perspective onto a number of key contemporary socio spatial phenomena Refraining from the attempt to ossify territoriology into some disciplinary straightjacket the collection aims to illustrate the scope of current territoriological research its domain its promises its theoretical advancements and its methodological reflection in the making Scholars interested in social research will find in this collection a rich and imaginative theoretical methodological toolkit Students in human geography anthropology and sociology socio legal studies architecture and urban planning will find Territories Environments Politics of interest

Waterways and the Cultural Landscape Francesco Vallerani, Francesco Visentin, 2017-09-11 Water control and management have been fundamental to the building of human civilisation In Europe the regulation of major rivers the digging of canals and the wetland reclamation schemes from the sixteenth to nineteenth centuries generated new typologies of waterscapes with significant implications for the people who resided within them This book explores the role of waterways as a form of heritage culture and sense of place and the potential of this to underpin the development of cultural tourism With a multidisciplinary approach across the social sciences and humanities chapters explore how the control and management of water flows are among some of the most significant human activities to transform the natural environment Based upon a wealth and breadth of European case studies the book uncovers the complex relationships we have with waterways the ways that they have been represented over recent centuries and the ways in which they continue to be redefined in different cultural contexts Contributions recognise not only valuable assets of hydrology that are at the core of landscape management but also more intangible aspects that matter to people such as their familiarity affecting what is understood as the fluvial sense of place This highly original collection will be of interest to those working in cultural tourism cultural geography heritage studies cultural history landscape studies and leisure studies Intelligent Environments 2009 Victor Callaghan,Achilles Kameas,Angélica Reyes,Dolors Royo,2009-07-15 As computers are increasingly embedded into our everyday environments the objects therein become augmented with sensors processing and communication capabilities and novel interfaces The capability for objects to perceive the environment store and process data pursue goals reason about their intentions and coordinate actions in a holistic manner gives rise to the so called Intelligent Environment IE In such environments real space becomes augmented with digital content thus transcending the limits of nature and of human perception The result is a pervasive transparent infrastructure capable of recognizing responding and adapting to individuals in a seamless and unobtrusive way The realization of Intelligent Environments requires the convergence of different disciplines such as information and computer science building architecture material engineering artificial intelligence sociology art and design The 5th International Conference on Intelligent Environments IE 09 held at the Polytechnic University of Catalonia Castelldefels Barcelona Spain provides a multidisciplinary forum for researchers and engineers from across the world to present their latest research and to discuss future directions in the area of Intelligent Environments The IE 09 proceedings contain the complete conference program including full papers presented at special sessions and short papers from the doctoral colloquium and poster session In addition three thought provoking invited lectures on topics of current and future IE research are included Critical Landscapes Emily Eliza Scott,Kirsten J Swenson,2015-06-05 From Francis Al s and Ursula Biemann to Vivan Sundaram Allora Calzadilla and the Center for Urban Pedagogy some of the most compelling artists today are engaging with the politics of land use including the growth of the global economy climate change sustainability Occupy movements and the privatization of public space Their work pivots around a set of evolving questions In what ways is land formed over the course of geological time also contemporary and formed by the conditions of the present How might art contribute to the expansion of spatial and environmental justice Editors Emily Eliza Scott and Kirsten Swenson bring together a range of international voices and artworks to illuminate this critical mass of practices One of the first comprehensive treatments of land use in contemporary art Critical Landscapes skillfully surveys the stakes and concerns of recent land based practices outlining the art historical contexts methodological strategies and geopolitical phenomena This cross disciplinary collection is destined to be an essential reference not only within the fields of art and art history but also across those of cultural geography architecture and urban planning environmental history and landscape studies Empathic Space ,2014-11-19 In recent years questions of space have gained renewed momentum inarchitecture and urban design as adaptation densification and sustainable regeneration have become an increasing priority. While most computing based design tends to emphasise the formal aspects of architecture overlooking space and its users, the original computational design approaches first spearheaded in the UK in the 1960s and 1970s tended to be focused on behavioural and occupational patterns. Over the last decade a new generation of design research has emerged that has started to implement and validate previous investigations into spatial computation aiming to understand how to design spatial configurations based on user experiences. This revives an interest in the experiential that was first explored in the early 20th century by German and Nordic organic architects who invented design methods that correlated cognitive responses of buildings occupants to spatial structure. The current revival of human centric design however represents the first design approach that synthesises spatial design and algorithmic techniques with organic design thinking which could also be regarded as a return to the first principles of architectural design. Contributors include Paul Coates, Christian Derix, Olafur Eliasson, Lucy Helme, Bill Hillier, smund Izaki, Prarthana Jagannath, Dan Montello, Juhani Pallasmaa, Philip Steadman and Guy Theriault. Featured Architects: Designers: Jussi Ngeslev, Art Com, Stan Allen, Aedas, R D Markus, Braach, Kaisersrot, Hermann Hertzberger, Kazuhiro Kojima, Cat Pablo Miranda and Rafi Segal.

From Bureaucracy to Bullets Bree Akesson, Andrew R. Basso, 2022-02-11. From Bureaucracy to Bullets uses eight compelling case studies from five continents and spanning the 20th and 21st centuries to explore the concept of extreme domicile or the intentional destruction of home as a result of political violence. Moving beyond mere description, From Bureaucracy to Bullets identifies common factors that contribute to extreme domicile thereby providing human rights actors with a framework to hold perpetrators accountable for their actions.

Performance in the Blockades of Neoliberalism M. Wickstrom, 2012-02-10. This book ranges from refugee camps in Palestine to halting sites of the Irish Travellers and elsewhere in search of a new politics practiced through performance. Written through the intersection of performance and philosophy, the book refutes neoliberalism's depoliticizing and strategic uses of humanitarianism, human rights and development.

Urbicide in Palestine Nurhan Abujidi, 2014-02-24. Exploring the way urbicide is used to un-re-make Palestine as well as how it is employed as a tool of spatial dispossession and control, this book examines contemporary political violence and destruction in the context of colonial projects in Palestine. The broader framework of the book is colonial and post-urban destruction urbanism with a working hypothesis that there are links, gaps and blind spots in the understanding of urbicide discourse. Drawing on several examples from the Palestinian history of destruction and transformations such as Jenin Refugee Camp, Hebron Old Town and Nablus Old Town, a methodological framework to identify urbicidal episodes is also generated. Advancing knowledge on one historical moment of the urban condition, the moment of its destruction and enhancing the understanding of the Palestinian-Israeli conflict from urbanistic, architectonic and Urbicide Spatio-cide perspectives through the use of case studies, this book will be essential reading for scholars and researchers with an interest in Urban Geography and Middle East Politics more broadly.
