Terror Terrorism And The Human Condition:

Terror, Terrorism and the Human Condition C. Webel, 2016-03-05 This book is an attempt to clarify the often murky connections between terrorism terrorists and terror It is designed for the general educated audience interested in recent events the history leading up to them and the prospects for dealing with the after effects Using personal accounts from people who have lived through various forms of terror survivors of the Dresden fire bombing Hiroshima the 9 11 attacks and others the book explores terror and its use as a weapon Providing a unique perspective on terrorism the book places current events within the broader context necessary to understand how we got here and where we are going , Ethics of Terrorism & Counter-Terrorism Georg Meggle, Andreas Kemmerling, Mark Textor, 2013-05-02 We are supposed to wage war against Terrorism but exactly what we are fighting against in this war there is nearly no consensus about And much worse nearly nobody cares about this conceptual disaster the main thing being whether or not you are taking sides with the good guys This volume is an analytical attempt to end this disaster What is Terrorism Are terrorist acts to be defined exclusively on the basis of the characteristics of the respective actions Or should we restrict such actions to acts performed by non state organisations And most important is terrorism already by its very nature to be morally condemned But having a clear idea of what Terrorism is would be only the beginning Rational moral assessment still needs two further components The relevant facts and the relevant values and norms Now in a field where systematic disinformation has been even proclaimed to be the official policy facts are obviously very hard to get at This volume is mainly interested in Ethics What s wrong with Terrorism And what is morally right or morally wrong respectively with all the different means of Counter Terrorism What are the moral boundaries for waging war against terrorism What are the right ways of dealing with terrorists And what about the alleged anti terrorism wars on Afghanistan and Iraq With contributions from Marcelo Dascal Tomis Kapitan Daniel Messelken Seumas Miller Olaf L Mueller Igor Primoratz Charles P Webel Per Buhn R diger Bittner C A J Tony Coady Haig Khatchadourian Georg Meggle Peter Simpson Carolin Emcke Ralf Groetker Laurence Lustgarten Thomas Mertens Aleksandar Pavkovic Filimon Peonidis Janna Thompson V ronique Zanetti Peace and Conflict Studies David P. Barash, Charles P. Webel, 2021-08-27 Peace and Conflict Studies sets the standard for an accessible introduction a comprehensive exploration and analysis of 21st century world events including updated coverage of the COVID 19 pandemic the Middle East the Social Justice movements within the US and Global Climate Change The text examines current conflicts explores the important aspects of positive peace individual violence nationalism and terrorism provides numerous visual aids questions for further study and suggested readings and furnishes a comprehensive range of material to enlighten and enrich future discussion and encourage further academic pursuit With a broad and authoritative scope this introductory text chronicles a plethora of important global topics from pre history to the present Routledge Handbook of African Media and Communication Studies Winston Mano, viola c. milton, 2021-02-12 This handbook comprises fresh and incisive research focusing on African media culture and communication The chapters from a cross section of scholars dissect the forces shaping the field within a changing African context It adds critical corpora of African scholarship and theory that places the everyday worlds needs and uses of Africans first The book goes beyond critiques of the marginality of African approaches in media and communication studies to offer scholars the theoretical and empirical toolkit needed to start building critical corpora of African scholarship and theory that places the everyday worlds needs and uses of Africans first Decoloniality demands new epistemological interventions in African media culture and communication and this book is an important interlocutor in this space In a globally interconnected world changing patterns of authority and power pose new challenges to the ways in which media institutions are constituted and managed as well as how communication and media policy is negotiated and the manner in which citizens engage with increasing media opportunities The handbook focuses on the interrelationships of the local and the global and the concomitant consequences for media practice education and citizen engagement in today s Africa Altogether the book foregrounds convivial epistemologies relevant for locating African media and communication in the pluriverse This handbook is an essential read for critical media communications cultural studies and journalism scholars

The Development of Eco-Phenomenology as An Interpretative Paradigm of The Living World Daniela Verducci, Maija Küle, 2022-09-29 This volume presents eco phenomenology s role in pandemics and post pandemics and takes up the task of eco phenomenology as a unified project by not focusing on naturalizing phenomenology but rather exploring the full range of possibilities such as creative acts and self individualization in dealing with ecological threats Eco phenomenological developments are based on the main concepts of phenomenology of life as created by Anna Teresa Tymieniecka This volume also uniquely explores the Covid 19 pandemic as a phenomenologically interpreted and ecological phenomenon It appeals to students and researchers working in the fields of phenomenology and environmental philosophy

The Reality of This World Charles P. Webel, 2025-10-29 The Reality of This World analyzes one of the most influential concepts known to humanity the world focusing primarily on the material conditions of our existence It is the companion to The World as Idea A Conceptual History Routledge 2021 Together the two volumes constitute The Fate of This World and the Future of Humanity In this book Charles P Webel examines the theories and policies that have constructed the world as it is He proposes strategies for transforming it into a more equitable and sustainable habitat both for humans and for the other species with whom we coexist on Earth In doing so he describes how the social and natural sciences as well as philosophy and the humanities have abetted our understanding of this world and explores why globalization and rationalization as well as such alternative realities as digital and AI technologies may simultaneously advance our collective well being while also putting life on Earth at existential risk In conclusion Webel proposes political and other solutions to mitigate such risks The Reality of This World will be of great interest to scholars in fields ranging from philosophy and intellectual history to political and social theory as well as to students and a general public interested in understanding and transforming our world American Popular Culture in the Era of Terror Jesse Kavadlo, 2015-09-15 Bringing together the most popular genres of the 21st century this book argues that Americans have entered a new era of narrative dominated by the fear and wish fulfillment of the breakdown of authority and terror itself Bringing together disparate and popular genres of the 21st century American Popular Culture in the Era of Terror Falling Skies Dark Knights Rising and Collapsing Cultures argues that popular culture has been preoccupied by fantasies and narratives dominated by the anxiety and strangely the wish fulfillment that comes from the breakdowns of morality family law and order and storytelling itself From aging superheroes to young adult dystopias heroic killers to lustrous vampires the figures of our fiction film and television again and again reveal and revel in the imagery of terror Kavadlo's single author thesis driven book makes the case that many of the novels and films about September 11 2001 have been about much more than terrorism alone while popular stories that may not seem related to September 11 are deeply connected to it The book examines New York novels written in response to September 11 along with the anti heroes of television and the resurgence of zombies and vampires in film and fiction to draw a correlation between Kavadlo's Era of Terror and the events of September 11 2001 Geared toward college students graduate students and academics interested in popular culture the book connects multiple topics to appeal to a wide audience

War and Delusion L. Calhoun, 2013-02-04 Calhoun examines the centuries old paradigm of just war theory to determine whether modern just war rationalizations constitute sound justifications or pro military propaganda Her work reveals how the practice of modern war contradicts the most basic values and principles of modern Western democracies

Moral Philosophy and the Modern World Donald Phillip Verene, 2013-08-27 This work raises for the contemporary reader the ancient and abiding question of the nature and meaning of human virtue In Part 1 it draws upon Plato Aristotle and Cicero and the works of Renaissance Christian humanists who were influenced by them such as Pico Vives and Erasmus The moral act guided by the cardinal virtues and the good is seen as the key to human happiness and the formation of character Character is the basis for the pursuit of self knowledge decorum and dignity which properly guide human affairs Part 2 takes up Hegel's principle of the labor of the negative as applied to three phenomena of modern life the presence of terrorism the personality of the psycho sociopath and the problems of the technologically dominated life of the modern person These are the most powerful impediments to the good life in the modern world and pose problems to which the ethical doctrines of utilitarianism and the categorical imperative provide an insufficient response To confront these phenomena we are led back to the classical conception of the role of prudence or practical wisdom as the foundation of ethical life
