Traces of Trauma in W. G. Sebald and Christoph Ransmayr Dora Osborne, 2017-12-02 Both W G Sebald 1944 2001 and the Austrian author Christoph Ransmayr 1954 were born too late to know directly the violence of the Second World War and the Holocaust but these traumatic events are a persistent presence in their work In a series of close readings of key prose texts Dora Osborne examines the different ways in which the traces of a traumatic past mark their narratives By focusing on the authors use of visual and topographical tropes she shows how blind spots and inhospitable places configure signs of past violence but ultimately resist our understanding Whilst links between the two authors are well documented this book offers the first full length study of Sebald and Ransmayr and their complicated relation to the traumatic traces of National Socialism Dora Osborne is Lecturer in German at the University of Nottingham
