Deary, 2000 Why are some people more mentally able than others In an authoritative critical and integrated series of review essays Professor Ian Deary inquires after the cognitive and biological foundations of human mental ability differences Many accounts of intelligence have examined the structure and number of human mental ability differences and whether they can predict success in education work and social life Few books have taken psychometric intelligence differences as a starting point and brought together the reductionistic attempts to explain them New to the highly acclaimed Oxford Psychology Series Looking Down on Human Intelligence appraises the search for the origins of psychometric intelligence differences in terms of brain function parameters The book provides an original and thought provoking guide to ancient and modern research on one of the most compelling questions in human psychology

Interaction and Connectivity in the Greater Southwest Karen Harry, Barbara J. Roth, 2019-03-21 This volume of proceedings from the fourteenth biennial Southwest Symposium explores different kinds of social interaction that occurred prehistorically across the Southwest The authors use diverse and innovative approaches and a variety of different data sets to examine the economic social and ideological implications of the different forms of interaction presenting new ways to examine how social interaction and connectivity influenced cultural developments in the Southwest The book observes social interactions role in the diffusion of ideas and material culture the way different social units especially households interacted within and between communities and the importance of interaction and interconnectivity in understanding the archaeology of the Southwest s northern periphery Chapters demonstrate a movement away from strictly economic driven models of social connectivity and interaction and illustrate that members of social groups lived in dynamic situations that did not always have clear cut and unwavering boundaries Social connectivity and interaction were often fluid changing over time Interaction and Connectivity in the Greater Southwest is an impressive collection of established and up and coming Southwestern archaeologists collaborating to strengthen the theoretical underpinnings of the discipline It will be of interest to professional and academic archaeologists as well as researchers with interests in diffusion identity cultural transmission borders large scale interaction or social organization Contributors Richard V N Ahlstrom James R Allison Jean H Ballagh Catherine M Cameron Richard Ciolek Torello John G Douglass Suzanne L Eckert Hayward H Franklin Patricia A Gilman Dennis A Gilpin William M Graves Kelley A Hays Gilpin Lindsay D Johansson Eric Eugene Klucas Phillip O Leckman Myles R Miller Barbara J Mills Matthew A Peebles David A Phillips Jr Katie Richards Heidi Roberts Thomas R Rocek Tammy Stone Richard K Talbot Marc Thompson David T Unruh John A Ware Kristina C Wyckoff

The Structuring of Experience I. Uzgiris, 2012-12-06 The articles which make up this book were all expressly written to honor a remarkable man and a remarkable psychologist Joseph McVicker Hunt on the occasion of his 70th birthday The contributors to this volume with the exception of Hunt s teacher J P Guilford are students and colleagues of Hunt s whose intellectual and professional paths have crossed his in some significant way In terms of content the contributions collectively range across many of the conventional boundaries that demarcate the territories into which psychological subject matter has been divided In so doing they remain faithful to the man they honor for whom such boundaries have had at best only provisional reality Yet as the introductory chapter attempts to make clear there is a unifying theme that lies behind the apparent diversity of Hunt s work While we wished to mark Hunt s specific contributions to the diverse areas represented in this book we also hoped to capture the unity of viewpoint that ties them together

Introducing Psychology Daniel L. Schacter, Daniel T. Gilbert, Daniel M. Wegner, 2009-12-25 Reads like a good book Written in the style of their award winning nonfiction books the Dans capture students attention in a way few textbooks can claim Each chapter each page is written with narrative hooks that retain student interest by engaging their curiosity compassion and interest in the world around them Students who read Introducing Psychology will quickly learn to critically examine the world around them and apply the lessons of psychology to their own lives Teaches like a great textbook The Dans focus the essential topics within psychology without diluting the explanation or removing examples intended to illustrate concepts By refining their coverage to the most clear thought provoking and illustrative examples the Dans manage to accomplish two difficult goals making thoughtful content choices covering the various fields of psychology and doing so in a manner that retains clarity and emphasizes student engagement The Natural and the Social Steve Hinchliffe, Kath Woodward, 2000 This fascinating new book draws on insights from across the social sciences from psychology economics and geography as well as sociology to examine the changing character of society and nature
