Testimony Shoshana Felman, Dori Laub, 1992 In this unique collection Yale literary critic Shoshana Felman and psychoanalyst Dori Laub examine the nature and function of memory and the act of witnessing both in their general relation to the acts of writing and reading and in their particular relation to the Holocaust Moving from the literary to the visual from the artistic to the autobiographical and from the psychoanalytic to the historical the book defines for the first time the trauma of the Holocaust as a radical crisis of witnessing the unprecedented historical occurrence of an event eliminating its own witness Through the alternation of a literary and clinical perspective the authors focus on the henceforth modified relation between knowledge and event literature and evidence speech and survival witnessing and ethics

Theopolitics and the Era of the Witness Jane Barter, 2025-06-30 Theopolitics and the Era of the Witness focuses on witnessing in the aftermath of political atrocity or genocide It offers a diachronic study of the relationship between theological forms of witnessing within Jewish and Christian traditions and public forms of witnessing in the twentieth and twenty first centuries This book explores the ways in which various witnesses to political atrocity and their mediators tacitly drew on religious themes of salvation to make sense of their suffering It investigates survivor testimony and the use made of it through scholarly interpretations of testimony within the Hebrew Bible New Testament and theological and philosophical traditions within Judaism and Christianity The chapters move from a consideration of the early post Shoah writings of Paul Celan and Primo Levi through to a discussion of the Truth and Reconciliation Commissions of South Africa and Canada The author makes the case for a weak messianism or remnant witnessing as an antidote to overdetermined and politicized uses made of survivor testimonies This book makes a valuable contribution to the work of theopolitics which claims that theology despite its persistent misuse can serve a constructive and critical force within public life albeit in a chastened key

Writings of Persuasion and Dissonance in the Great War, 2016-06-10 Through chapters dedicated to specific writers and texts Writings of Persuasion and Dissonance in the Great War is a collection of essays examining literary responses to the Great War particularly the confrontation of two distinct languages One of these reflects nineteenth century ideals of war as a noble sacrifice the other portrays the hopeless brutal reality of the trenches The ultimate aim of this volume is to convey and reinforce the notion that no explicit literary language can ever be regarded as the definitive language of the Great War nor can it ever hope to represent this conflict in its entirety The collection also uncovers how memory constantly develops triggering distinct and even contradictory responses from those involved in the complex process of remembering
