

CITY

The word "CITY" is rendered in a stylized, orange-colored font against a black background. Each letter is designed to resemble a famous skyscraper: the 'C' is the Chrysler Building with its iconic Art Deco spire; the 'I' is the Empire State Building with its tiered top; the 'T' is the One World Trade Center with its distinctive crown; and the 'Y' is the Twin Towers of the World Trade Center, showing the two towers and the connecting skybridge. The letters are filled with a solid orange color, and the black background provides a high contrast.

Text and Image in the City Catherine Armstrong, John Hinks, 2017-03-07 The essays in this collection discuss how the city is textualized and address many aspects of how texts and images are written and produced in and about cities They demonstrate how urban texts and images provoke reactions in city dwellers visitors civic and political actors that in turn impact upon the shape of the city itself Many kinds of urban texts both manuscript and print are discussed including chapbooks periodicals poetry graffiti and street signs The essays derive from a range of disciplines including book history urban history cultural history literary studies art history and urban planning and explore some key questions in urban cultural history including the relationship between text image and the city the function of the text or image within an urban environment how urban texts and images have been used by those in positions of power and by those with little or no power the ways in which urban identity and values have been reflected in street literature graffiti and subversive texts and images and whether theories of urban space can help us to understand the relationship between text image and the city As such this volume will serve to enhance the reader's understanding of the nature of urbanism from a historical perspective the creation and representation of urban space and the processes of urbanization It investigates how the creation distribution and consumption of urban texts and images actively affect the shaping of the city itself a mutually constitutive process whereby text image and city create and sustain each other

Fragments of the European City Stephen Barber, 2013-06-01 This book explores the visual transformation of the contemporary European city focusing on the most emblematic and visibly wounded of all European cities Berlin Taking as its subject the intricately assembled relentlessly disassembling metropolitan screen it charts the virulent implosions of culture the distortions and violence that give city living its fractured and hallucinatory quality Provocatively written as a series of interlocking poetic fragments the text evokes the formation of metropolitan identity as it ricochets between the physical surface of the city and the vulnerable but manipulating consciousness of city dwellers Barber has discovered a powerful new vocabulary a vocabulary charged with the visual and sonic impact of the cinema Like the city the text pulsates creatively chaotic raw and exhilarating
