puts the commandment to love at the center of Jewish theology and experience This is a book that will change the way you think about and practice Judaism Professor Ari L Goldman Columbia University and author of The Search for God at Harvard Love your neighbor as yourself is the best known commandment in the Bible Yet we rarely hear anyone talk about how to apply these words in daily life In this landmark work Rabbi Joseph Telushkin one of the premier scholars and thinkers of our time gives both Jews and non Jews an extraordinary summation of what Jewish tradition teaches about putting these words into practice Writing with great clarity and simplicity as well as with deep wisdom Telushkin covers topics such as love and kindness hospitality visiting the sick comforting mourners charity relations between Jews and non Jews compassion for animals tolerance self defense and end of life issues This second volume of the first major code of Jewish ethics written in the English language is breathtaking in its scope and will undoubtedly influence readers for generations to come It offers hundreds of practical examples from the Torah the Talmud the Midrash and both ancient and modern rabbinic commentaries as well as contemporary anecdotes all teaching us how to care for one another each and every day A Code of Jewish Ethics Volume 2 Love Your Neighbor as Yourself is a consummate work of scholarship Like its acclaimed predecessor which received the National Jewish Book Award it is rich with ideas to contemplate and discuss while being primarily a book to live by Nothing could be more important in these strife torn times than learning how to love our neighbors as ourselves The message of this book is as vital and timely now as it has been since time immemorial Humbling Faith Peter

Admirand,2019-03-22 This is a book hoping to embolden doubt and sharpen unanswerable questions all in the context of loving the self and one another Ridiculously it believes the world can be healed through such a hope It is especially addressed to those allergic to the word faith and others who feel confident and proud in the faith they profess or system of thought they live by Humbling Faith helps us see how our beliefs or non beliefs our belongings and identities often remain flawed myopic self absorbed unredeemed The hope is that such awareness of our brokenness can fuel greater ethical partnerships and dialogue promoting peace from our recognized need for one another Humbling Faith is not only a resource towards humbling other faiths but most importantly your own He Wants You to Know Beverly Lipford Carroll,2013-07 How can we understand what we do not know How can we comprehend what is outside our experience God is holy we are sinful God is all powerful and all knowing and perfect love and we are not He knows us completely and it is the desire of his heart for his children to know him The best teachers will patiently lead students one step at a time using what students do know to increase their understanding of what they need to learn God is the master teacher God reveals himself to his children in the Bible and in everyday experiences using what they do understand to help them learn the truth about who he is He takes what is familiar to them and says At least in some ways I AM like that It is not enough to have knowledge of what God said we must have understanding of what he wants us to learn Examine thirteen metaphors God uses to describe himself and find deeper understanding of this God who wants you to know him Jewish-Christian Dialogue and the Life of Wisdom

Matthew Levering, 2010-03-21 This book inquires as to whether theological dialogue between Christians and Jews is possible not only in itself but also as regards the emergence of communities of Messianic Judaism In light of David Novak's insights Matthew Levering proposes that Christian theological responses to supersessionism need to preserve both the Church's development of doctrine and Rabbinic Judaism's ability to define its own boundaries The book undertakes constructive philosophical theology in dialogue with Novak Exploring the interrelated doctrines of divine providence theonomy the image of God and natural law Levering places Novak's work in conversation especially with Thomas Aquinas whose approach fosters a rich dialogue with Novak's broadly Maimonidean perspective It focuses upon the relationship of human beings to the Creator with attention to the philosophical entailments of Jewish and Christian covenantal commitments aiming to spell out what true freedom involves It concludes by asking whether Christians and Jews would do better to bracket our covenantal commitments in pursuing such wisdom Drawing upon Novak's work the author argues that in the face of suffering and death God's covenantal election makes possible hope lacking which the quest for wisdom runs aground

Creating an Ethical Jewish Life Byron L. Sherwin, Seymour, Cohen, 2000-12-04 The classic texts of Jewish ethical literature works little known to most of us now available for personal study This one of a kind book brings Jewish ethical literature from ancient and medieval worlds straight into our twenty first century lives
