The Habermas Reader:

The Habermas Reader Jürgen Habermas, 1996 This book provides a comprehensive introduction to and selection from Jürgen Habermas's writings from the early 1960s to the present. The book is divided into seven sections covering the principal areas of Habermas's work. Each section includes an introduction and a selection of substantial extracts from relevant books. In the general introduction Outhwaite outlines the central themes of Habermas's work and analyses the development of his views over the years. Subsequent sections are organized thematically and chronologically so that the book will be easy to use by students. There are extracts from all of Habermas's major works including his early work on the public sphere and on science and technology; his writings on the methodology and epistemology of the social sciences; his work on evolution and legitimation; his theory of communication and discourse ethics; his analysis of modernity and his critique of postmodernism; and his most recent work on law and the state. By bringing these wide-ranging contributions together in a single volume, The Habermas Reader is an ideal teaching text. It will also be of interest to anyone who wishes to gain an overview of the work of one of the most important social thinkers of the twentieth century.

Derrida Madeleine Fagan, 2007-04-18 death of Jacques Derrida in 2004 represented a major interruption in contemporary intellectual life This death calls for an engagement with Derrida s work and an attempt to understand his legacy Such a discussion is fraught with tension between remaining faithful after death and putting Derrida s writing to work in new directions posing challenges and exposing limitations In short this legacy is necessarily a negotiation The aim of this book is to grapple with this specific theme and to explore the implications of Derrida s death for the future of critical thought itself The authors demonstrate that there is no single way to adopt or inherit Derrida s thought Rather through their engagement with contemporary themes within Politics and International Studies Philosophy Literary Studies
