The Harahan Journal Radomir Luza (Jr.),1991 International Who's Who in Poetry 2004 Europa Publications,2003 Provides up to date profiles on the careers of leading and emerging poets Jazz Religion, the Second Line, and Black New Orleans Richard Brent Turner,2016-10-17 This scholarly study demonstrates that while post Hurricane Katrina New Orleans is changing the vibrant traditions of jazz must continue Journal of African American History An examination of the musical religious and political landscape of black New Orleans before and after Hurricane Katrina this revised edition looks at how these factors play out in a new millennium of global apartheid Richard Brent Turner explores the history and contemporary significance of second lines the group of dancers who follow the first procession of church and club members brass bands and grand marshals in black New Orleans s jazz street parades Here music and religion interplay and Turner s study reveals how these identities and traditions from Haiti and West and Central Africa are reinterpreted He also describes how second line participants create their own social space and become proficient in the arts of political disguise resistance and performance Zahraniční bohemika a slovacika ,1992 Bibliografický katalog ČSFR. ,1992 The SAR Magazine Sons of the American Revolution,1935 The Sons of the American Revolution Magazine Sons of the American Revolution,1935 Airpower in Literature Kimberly K. Dougherty,2022-08-08 The first century of airpower has ended yet few critics have addressed the literature that chronicles its human toll Airpower in Literature Interrogating the Clean War 1915 2015 offers fresh insight into this airpower century by placing literature of five major wars in conversation with the clean war discourse Kimberly Dougherty examines the paradoxical representation of aerial warfare that has allowed extensive airstrikes on cities and civilians while promising a cleaner method of waging war First suggested by early military theorists the notion of a clean air war one that would save lives through its speed and precision proved seductive in the twentieth century and continues to shape the rhetoric of airpower today The air war is perceived as clean the author argues when we see neither the aviator nor the targeted populations in the bombing dynamic Through analysis of fiction poetry drama and journalism from the ruins of World War I to the technologies of post modern war the author identifies counternarratives that make visible both aviators and bombed societies and present aerial warfare that is not clean but messy prolonged and imprecise This exploration encourages readers and writers to approach the next century of airpower with greater wisdom and empathy The Sons of the American Revolution magazine ,1933 Literary Digest: a Repository of Contemporaneous Thought and Research as Presented in the Periodical Literature of the World Edward Jewitt Wheeler,Isaac Kaufman Funk,William Seaver Woods,1906
