Novacich explores how medieval thinkers pondered the ethics and pleasures of the archive She traces three episodes of sacred history the loss of Eden the loading of Noah s ark and the Harrowing of Hell across works of poetry performance records and iconography in order to demonstrate how medieval artists turned to sacred history to think through aspects of cultural transmission Performances of the loss of Eden blur the relationship between original and record stories of Noah s ark foreground the difficulty of compiling inventories and engagements with the Harrowing of Hell suggest the impossibility of separating the past from the present Reading Middle English plays alongside chronicles poetry and works of visual art Shaping the Archive in Late Medieval England considers how poetic form staging logistics and the status of performance all contribute to our understanding of the ways in which medieval thinkers imagined the archive John Milton, Radical

Politics, and Biblical Republicanism Walter S. H. Lim,2006 In analyzing how Milton reads and appropriates different skulking around the bushes with his hunting buddies and trudging through groves of larch alpine fir and willow in search of elk Later hunting became a form of therapy a way to ward off melancholy and depression In the end as a result of a dramatic experience after shooting a grouse Carpenter gave up hunting for good Winding through this personal narrative is Carpenter s exploration of the history of hunting subsistence hunting versus hunting for sport trophy hunting and the meaning of the hunt for those who have written about it most eloquently Are wild creatures somehow our property How is the sport hunter
