The Nacirema Readings On American Culture:

The Nacirema James P. Spradley, Michael A. Rynkiewicz, 1975 American Culture Larry Naylor, 1998-02-24 America like other modern nations is characterized by its diversity and can be seen as a complex and fragmented nation state Yet an American culture defined by those beliefs and behaviors that all Americans do share irrespective of their other cultural affiliations does exist This book presents an innovative approach to the issues and aspects in the study of America s unique culture The real diversity of America is lost in the practice of categorizing people into social racial or ethnic groups and then attributing culture to them While not an exhaustive treatment of the culture this volume serves as a point of departure for discussions of American culture in a variety of courses both within and outside the discipline of anthropology Each chapter is accompanied by suggested readings to enable the student to pursue a more in depth study of any individual topic

Encounters with American Ethnic Cultures Philip L. Kilbride, Jane C. Goodale, Elizabeth R. Ameisen, 1990-10-30 Includes material on African Americans Welsh Americans Irish Americans Ukrainian Americans Jewish Americans Greek Americans Puerto Rican Americans and Cambodian Americans The Teacher's Guide to Media Literacy Cyndy Scheibe, Faith Rogow, 2012 A Deeper Sense of Literacy is the first book to suggest that media literacy is both a content area and an approach to teaching that can be integrated into any subject area It combines theory and practical application in a way that addresses the most important questions related to media literacy in education today what is it why is it important how can you teach it across a wide range of curriculum areas and grade levels and does it work Rather than focusing on how to teach media literacy Scheibe and Rogow focus on actually using media literacy to teach lessons across the content areas The Carver's Art Simon J. Bronner, 2021-11-21 Chains carved from a single block of wood cages whittled with wooden balls rattling inside all made with just a pocketknife are among our most enduring folk designs Who makes them and why what is their history what do they mean for their makers for their viewers for our society Simon J Bronner portrays four wood carvers in southern Indiana men who had been transplanted from the rural landscapes of their youth to industrial towns After retiring they took up a skill they remembered from childhood Bronner discusses how creativity helped these men adjust to change and how viewers responses to carving reflect their own backgrounds By recording the narratives of these men s lives the stories and anecdotes that laced their conversation Bronner finds new insight into the functions and symbolism of traditional craft Including anew illustrated afterword in which the author discusses recent developments in the carver s art this new edition will appeal to carvers scholars and anyone interested in traditional woodworking Mission and the Cultural Other Randy S. Woodley, 2022-09-01 Mission and the Cultural Other is a decolonial critique of a too often failed missionary enterprise Rev Dr Randy Woodley a former missionary and missiologist writes both as an insider and an outsider As an Indigenous person a missionary among Native Americans and a decolonial theologian with over thirty years of experience in various missionary movements he has seen the best and worst that American mission has to offer Before change can be made in a guarded system such as Christian mission the critique must be pervasive and cut to the core of the problem To truly understand the weakness of modern mission we need to hear from those who have been its casualties

The Integrative Family Therapy Supervisor: A Primer Robert E. Lee, Craig A. Everett, 2004-03 The textbook is designed to replace the standard treatise with one more reader friendly integrative in orientation practical and pragmatic and full of exercises for the skills necessary for the AAMFT Approved Supervisor credential Families in the U.S. Karen V. Hansen, Anita Iltis Garey, 1998 Attempts to do justice to the complexity of contemporary families and to situate them in their economic political and cultural contexts This book explores the ways in which family life is gendered and reflects on the work of maintaining family and kin relationships especially as social and family power structures change over time

Anthropology and Social Theory Sherry B. Ortner, 2006-11-30 The award winning anthropologist Sherry B Ortner draws on her longstanding interest in theories of cultural practice to rethink key concepts of culture agency and subjectivity

Perspectives In U.S. Marxist Anthropology David J. Hakken, Hanna Lessinger, June Nash, Florence Babb, 2019-06-04 An assessment of current trends in Marxist anthropology this collection of essays reflects both the unifying force of Marxist thought and the diversity of contemporary anthropology Linked by a common approach a shared commitment to Marxist analysis the contributors look at a variety of phenomena including the problems of labor and work in terms of a coherent theory of Marxism Examining political economic and ethnic situations the authors discuss social structures ideology and class formation This unique volume warrants the attention of both Marxists and non Marxists in anthropology and of scholars in other fields
