The Nature of Happiness According to Advaita Vedanta Berthold Madhukar Thompson,2016-05-25 Guru Yes My definition of enlightenment is what colour is for the blind man We can describe colour to him and he will understand and know it intellectually as a mental concept But what it really is as an experiential experience he will only know after eyesight has been given to him Or say we have a glass of water in front of us The water exists as it is waterness is its nature Speaking of it is water in terms of the mind Such water is a concept The word water is not water No matter how detailed we describe it even if it is described by 100 Einsteins such a description will never be what water really is We have the triad the subject the seer the object water and the process of perceiving water We can know water only when we drink it shower with it etc That knowing then is a direct existential experience That knowing is drinking is quenching thirst therefore is blissful The three fold aspects knowing drinking and being blissful are one in the event called drinking It is an impersonal event that occurs as part of the functioning of Totality It is not an act of an individual me embodied in a body mind organism with the sense of personal volition and doership While drinking the triad drinker water and the process of drinking is dissolved Drinking occurs as one impersonal event comprising the drinker the water and the process of drinking In this case drinking is the impersonal What is The actual drinking of water is not a concept At the moment of drinking there is no individual separate me entity a drinker drinking water The me comes in afterwards as a further additional me thought as in I drank water I experienced drinking water The fact is while drinking water happened there was no me A body mind organism was drinking water as part of the functioning of Totality When we inquire closely we find that such a me entity does not exist except as a thought as a notion as a concept Right Rejoicing; or, the Nature and order of warrantable joy; being an abridgment of a sermon, upon Luke x. 20 Richard Baxter,1814 The Irreducibility of the Human Person Mark K. The Marriage of Happiness (The Revelation of Woman) - a Study in Nature.,1930-01-01 Carl Battenstedt embodies prototypically the sense of a new beginning as well as the anxieties of early modernity He is interested in technical innovations and human progress albeit in a way which would not make him a follower of a spiritual green movement today His concept of the Marriage of Happiness which is based on the assumption of a mystical union brought about by the exchange of fluids distinguishes between the pleasure dimension of sexuality and that of reproduction and places pleasure in the service of marital bonding The phenomena he describes form the basis of present day adult nursing relationships The book suddenly became famous throughout Germany around 1900 because the secret consisted of the recommendation that the husband should drink milk from his wife s breast at least four times a day in order to bring them both happiness and a long life if not immortality The man s breastfeeding was supposed to stop the woman s period in order to limit the number of births a natural contraceptive method

In 1999 a short video of a solitary boy kicking an empty bottle up a hill in Mexico City became the first instalment of Children s Games a series of works by artist Francis Alÿs b Antwerp 1959 The ongoing project which now numbers around thirty five works has gradually given shape to an extensive collection of videos of children at play For almost twenty five years Alÿs and his collaborators Félix Blume Julien Devaux and Rafael Ortega have been travelling around the world to document the distinctive ways in which children interact with each other and their physical environment They have gone from remote villages in the Democratic Republic of the Congo Afghanistan Venezuela and Nepal to the mountains of Switzerland and metropolises like Hong Kong and Paris but have also visited the war torn city of Mosul in Iraq the border between Mexico and the United States and the strait of Gibraltar that divides Africa and Europe The resulting images are standing proof of the seriousness of play and of children s stunning powers of resilience in the face of conflict This volume provides a multidisciplinary perspective to the many layers of Children s Games It includes an interview with Francis Al s and Rafael Ortega a series of essays by well known scholars and art critics curatorial statements and a logbook related to the presentation of Children s Games at the Venice Biennale of 2022
