The New Arab Family:

The New Arab Family Nicholas S. Hopkins, 2003 Marriage divorce and related topics are examined in this volume

The New Arab Man Marcia C. Inhorn, 2012-03-25 Middle Eastern Muslim men have been widely vilified as terrorists religious zealots and brutal oppressors of women The New Arab Man challenges these stereotypes with the stories of ordinary Middle Eastern men as they struggle to overcome infertility and childlessness through assisted reproduction Drawing on two decades of ethnographic research across the Middle East with hundreds of men from a variety of social and religious backgrounds Marcia Inhorn shows how the new Arab man is self consciously rethinking the patriarchal masculinity of his forefathers and unseating received wisdoms This is especially true in childless Middle Eastern marriages where contrary to popular belief infertility is more common among men than women Inhorn captures the marital moral and material commitments of couples undergoing assisted reproduction revealing how new technologies are transforming their lives and religious sensibilities And she looks at the changing manhood of husbands who undertake transnational egg quests set against the backdrop of war and economic uncertainty out of devotion to the infertile wives they love Trenchant and emotionally gripping The New Arab Man traces the emergence of new masculinities in the Middle East in the era of biotechnology

The New Reproductive Order Sarah Franklin, Marcia C. Inhorn, 2025-04-22 The transformative impact of new reproductive technologies over the past half century Both fertility and infertility are commonly depicted as individual biological and choice dependent conditions that can be mediated by technology In contrast The New Reproductive Order documents the complex material historical and political forces that both enable and limit human reproductivity while also arguing that both fertility and infertility have become condensed symbols of wider changes to family forms national political agendas global economies and local environments Combining anthropological sociological and intersectional feminist research from across the globe this landmark volume reveals how changing perceptions of fertility and infertility are altering how people imagine pursue and experience reproductivity both individually and collectively Using a comparative global methodology based on detailed case studies The New Reproductive Order persuasively argues that changing perceptions of fertility and infertility are giving rise to a distinctive reproductive politics based on new models of reproductive cause and effect This groundbreaking and sophisticated volume opens new horizons of scholarship on the relationship between fertility infertility reproductive technologies and social change as well as new thinking on policy practice and activism in the twenty first century's new reproductive order

The New Arabs Juan Cole, 2015-10-20 The renowned blogger and Middle East expert Juan Cole illuminates the role of today's Arab youth who they are what they want and how they will affect world politics Beginning in January 2011 the revolutionary wave of demonstrations and protests riots and civil wars that comprised what many call the Arab Spring shook the world These upheavals were spearheaded by youth movements and yet the crucial role they played is relatively unknown Middle East expert Juan Cole is here to share their stories For three decades Cole has sought to put the relationship of the West and the Muslim world in historical context In The New Arabs he outlines the history that led to the dramatic changes in the region and explores how a new generation of men and women are using innovative notions of personal rights to challenge the authoritarianism corruption and stagnation that had afflicted their societies Not all big cohorts of teenagers and twenty somethings necessarily produce movements centered on their identity as youth with a generational set of organizations symbols and demands rooted at least partially in the distinctive problems besetting people of their age The Arab Millennials did And in a provocative and optimistic argument about the future of the Arab world The New Arabs shows just how they did it Provided by publisher Roots of the New Arab Film Roy Armes, 2018-01-06 Roots of the New Arab Film deals with the generation of filmmakers from across North Africa and the Middle East who created an international awareness of Arab film from the mid 1980s onwards These seminal filmmakers experienced the moment of national independence first hand in their youth and retained a deep attachment to their homeland Although these aspiring filmmakers had to seek their training abroad they witnessed a time of filmic revival in Europe Fellini and Antonioni in Italy the French New Wave and British Free Cinema Returning home these filmmakers brought a unique insider outsider perspective to bear on local developments in society since independence including the divide between urban and rural communities the continuing power of traditional values and the status of women in a changing society As they made their first films back home the feelings of participation in a worldwide movement of new independent filmmaking was palpable Roots of the New Arab Film is a necessary and comprehensive resource for anyone interested in the foundations of Arab cinema Population Change in Europe, the Middle-East and North Africa Koenraad Matthijs, Karel Neels, Christiane Timmerman, Jacques Haers, 2016-12-05 Current demographic trends raise new questions challenges and controversies Comparing demographic trends in Europe and the NAME region North Africa and the Middle East this book demonstrates how population change interacts with changing economic landscapes social distinctions and political realities A variety of drivers contribute to demographic change in the various regions and countries considered such as family policies economic realities the impact of educational differentials and the attitudes towards marriage On the macro level the new trends are restructuring the age composition of populations and are reshaping the life courses of individuals and families In turn the impact demographic forces have on the organisation of labour markets on fiscal policies on the care of the elderly on migration flows and on political changes can be quite radical Chapter 1 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 3.0 license https://uswest2.amazonaws.com/tandfbis-rt/files/docs/Open Access Chapters 9781472439543_oachapter1.pdf Arab Family Studies Suad Joseph, 2018-07-10 Family remains the most powerful social idiom and one of the most powerful social structures throughout the Arab world To engender love of nation among its citizens national movements portray the nation as a family To motivate loyalty political leaders frame themselves as fathers mothers brothers or sisters to their clients parties or the citizenry To stimulate production economic actors evoke the sense of duty and mutual commitment of family obligation To sanctify their edicts clerics wrap religion in the moralities of family and family in the moralities of religion Social and political movements from the most secular to the most religious pull on the tender strings of family love to recruit and bind their members to each other To call someone family is to offer them almost the highest possible intimacy loyalty rights reciprocities and dignity In recognizing the significance of the concept of family this state of the art literature review captures the major theories methods and case studies carried out on Arab families over the past century The book offers a country by country critical assessment of the available scholarship on Arab families Sixteen chapters focus on specific countries or groups of countries seven chapters offer examinations of the literature on key topical issues Joseph s volume provides an indispensable resource to researchers and students and advances Arab family studies as a critical independent field of scholarship

Fathers and Sons in the Arab Middle East D. Cohen-Mor, 2013-11-07 Drawing on insights from psychology sociology anthropology religion history and literature this book examines early and contemporary writings of male authors from across the Arab world to explore the traditional and evolving nature of father son relationships in Arab families

The New Arab Journalist Lawrence Pintak, 2010-12-18 The Arab media is in the midst of a revolution that will inform questions of war and peace in the Middle East political and societal reform and relations between the West and the Arab World Drawing on the first broad cross border survey of Arab journalists first person interviews with scores of reporters and editors and his three decades experience reporting from the Middle East Lawrence Pintak examines how Arab journalists see themselves and their mission at this critical time in the evolution of the Arab media He explores how in a diverse Arab media landscape expressing myriad opinions journalists are still under siege as governments fight a rear guard action to manage the message This innovative book breaks through the stereotypes about Arab journalists to reveal the fascinating and complex reality and what it means for the rest of us

Brothers and Sisters Ann Buchanan, Anna Rotkirch, 2020-12-09 This edited volume presents unique insights on sibling relationships in adulthood in the early 21st century focusing on three themes relations beyond childhood and school years factors shaping social support provision between siblings and changes in family life and how these impact sibling relations Comprised of chapters from distinguished international family scholars this book examines sibling dynamics across age race culture gender sexual orientation geography and social environments It answers important questions such as to what extent do siblings support each other at different stages of the life cycle How do cultural practices and family obligations impact on sibling support How does sibling support differ when looking at surrogates migrant families polygamous families and siblings with disabilities These contributions expand and contribute greatly to the field of sibling studies and will be of interest to all students and scholars studying and researching family relationships
