The New Germans John Dornberg, 1976 Performing New German Realities Lizzie Stewart, 2021-07-07 One in four people in Germany today have a so called migration background however the relationship between theatre and migration there has only recently begun to take centre stage Indeed fifty years after large scale Turkish labour migration to the Federal Republic of Germany began theatre by Turkish German artists is only now becoming a consistent feature of Germany's influential state funded theatrical landscape Drawing on extensive archival and field work this book asks where when why and how plays engaging with the new realities of postmigrant Germany have been performed over the past 30 years Focusing on plays by renowned artists Emine Sevgi Zdamar and Feridun Zaimoglu G nter Senkel it asks which new realities have been scripted in the theatrical sphere in the process in the imaginations of playwrights readers audience members in the enactment and direction of scripts on stage and in the performance of new institutional approaches and cultural policies Highlighting the role this theatre has played in a larger ongoing re scripting of the German stage this study presents a critical perspective on contemporary European theatre and opens innovative developments in the conceptualization of theatre and post migration from the German context to English language readers Men who Have Made the New German Empire Gustave Louis Maurice Strauss, 1875 Men Who Have Made the New German Empire.
