The Time Inheritors

How Time Inequalities Shape Higher Education
Mobility in China

Do students inherit time? What difference does time make to educational journeys and outcomes? The Time Inheritors is based on nearly a decade of field research with more than one hundred youth in China to argue that intergenerational transfers of privilege or deprivation are manifested in and through time. Drawing on experiences of rural-to-urban, cross-border, and international education, Cora Lingling Xu shows how inequalities of inheritance help drive deeply unequal mobility.
