The Woman Who Lost Her Soul and Other Stories

Jovita González Mireles, 2000-01-01 The writer Jovita González was a long member and ultimately served as president of the Texas Folklore Society which strived to preserve the oral traditions and customs of her native state. Many of the folklore-based stories in this volume were published by González in periodicals such as Southwest Review from the 1920s through the 1940s but have been gathered here for the first time. Sergio Reyna has brought together more than thirty narratives by González and arranged them into Animal Tales such as The Mescal Drinking Horse, Tales of Humans, The Bullet Swallower, Tales of Popular Customs, Shelling Corn by Moonlight, Religious Tales, The Guadalupe Vine, Tales of Mexican Ancestors, Ambrosio the Indian, and Tales of Ghosts, Demons, and Buried Treasure. The Woman Who Lost Her Soul Reyna also provides a helpful introduction that succinctly surveys the author's life and work, analyzing her writings within their historical and cultural contexts.

Angels' Shoes, and Other Stories Marjorie L. C. Pickthall, 2019-12-09 Marjorie L. C. Pickthall's Angels' Shoes and Other Stories presents a masterful collection that intricately weaves themes of spirituality, morality, and the intricacies of human relationships through a tapestry of evocative prose. The stories feature a distinctive blend of realism and the ethereal, often drawing on Pickthall's deep engagement with the natural world and her keen sense of observation. This collection not only reflects the literary movement of early 20th-century Canadian literature but also explores the nuanced dynamics of faith and the everyday, highlighting the intersection between the mundane and the divine in an ever-evolving society. Pickthall, recognized for her prowess as a poet and fiction writer, was deeply influenced by her experiences in a changing world, particularly the tensions arising from the burgeoning modernity and the traditions of her childhood. Raised in a predominantly rural environment infused with nature's beauty, she cultivated a unique voice shaped by her spiritual insights and her commitment to exploring the human condition. This attunement to both the tangible and the intangible manifests throughout the stories in Angels' Shoes, offering readers a profound meditation on existence. This collection is highly recommended for readers intrigued by narratives that transcend the ordinary, inviting them to contemplate the deeper meanings within life's experiences. With its delicate prose and thought-provoking themes, Angels' Shoes and Other Stories is an essential read for anyone seeking an exploration of the delicate balance between spirituality and reality, crafted by one of Canada's enduring literary figures.

Love and Other Stories Tibor Déry, 2005 Tibor Déry, 1894-1977, winner of Hungary's highest artistic honor, the Kossuth Prize in 1948, was first imprisoned in 1934 by the Horthy regime for translating André Gide's diary of his journey to Russia and again, over twenty years later, for his writings and political activities during the Hungarian Revolt of 1956 against Soviet occupation. Around the world, Tibor Déry's Committees formed by Picasso, Camus, Sartre, Bertrand Russell, E. M. Forster, and in the Indian Congress Committee were among the many involved. Today Tibor Déry is venerated as one of the most important literary figures of Hungary and, like Chekhov, a master of the modern short story. Love and Other

Stories presents some of D ry s finest work In Games of the Underworld ordinary people in Budapest try to survive the winter of war in cramped cellars and encounter menacing Arrow Cross men a towering giant a blind horse a vinegar sponge in The Circus a group of bored children transmogrifies into a grotesque spectacle in Love a political prisoner is released after seven years and returns home to his wife and son George Szirtes the award winning translator from the Hungarian and winner of the 2004 T S Eliot Prize for poetry gives a brilliant introduction to this visionary collection that deals passionately with questions of responsibility and conscience of social justice and renewal

The Mechanics of Falling and Other Stories Catherine Brady,2009-02-28 The stories in this collection explore those moments when the seemingly fixed coordinates of our lives abruptly give way when mother love fractures a faithful husband abandons his family a conscientious middle class life implodes or loyalty demands an excruciating sacrifice The characters share a fundamental predicament the struggle to name and embrace some faith that can break their fall In equal measure they hunger for and resist this elusive possibility and what it demands of them The Mechanics of Falling and Other Stories deals with a range of circumstances and relationships and with characters who must decide what they are willing to risk for the sake of transformation or for the right to refuse it The stories trace the effort to traverse the boundaries between one state and another between conviction and self doubt recklessness and despair resignation and rebellion And each story propels the reader to imagine what will happen next to register the unfinished and always precarious quality of every life
