Cellular Ageing and Replicative Senescence Suresh I.S. Rattan, Leonard Hayflick, 2016-05-09 This book covers the origins and subsequent history of research results in which attempts have been made to clarify issues related to cellular ageing senescence and age related pathologies including cancer Cellular Ageing and Replicative Senescence revisits more than fifty five years of research based on the discovery that cultured normal cells are mortal and the interpretation that this phenomenon is associated with the origins of ageing The mortality of normal cells and the immortality of cancer cells were also reported to have in vivo counterparts Thus began the field of cytoogerontology Cellular Ageing and Replicative Senescence is organized into five sections history and origins serial passaging and progressive ageing cell cycle arrest and senescence system modulation and recapitulation and future expectations These issues are discussed by leading thinkers and researchers in biogerontology and cytoogerontology This collection of articles provides state of the art information and will encourage students teachers health care professionals and others interested in the biology of ageing to explore the fascinating and challenging question of why and how our cells age and what can and cannot be done about it

The Growing-Block View Graeme Forbes, 2025-05-15 What makes time interesting and what is time Graeme A Forbes presents a robust defence of the metaphysical asymmetry between past and future providing a compelling argument for the acceptance of the Growing Block view Taking us from the armchair to philosophy of physics and then out to the human world Forbes considers the ontological questions that have been the focus of most of the literature on the metaphysics of time Across three parts he addresses questions central to the philosophy of time Part I asks why we should think that time does something that space does not Part II examines why we should think that the past differs in some metaphysically interesting way from the future and Part III shows why we should accept the Growing Block view the view on which the past exists the future doesn't and the passage of time is causation bringing about events in accordance with the laws of nature This wide ranging and engaging exploration of persistence experience agency and more makes a radical contribution to our understanding of the philosophy of time The Canadian Law Review, 1903 Annual Report Ohio State Board of Charities, 1893 The Magazine of American History with Notes and Queries John Austin Stevens, Benjamin Franklin DeCosta, Henry Phelps Johnston, Martha Joanna Lamb, Nathan Gillett Pond, 1890 The History of Cancer and Emotions in Twentieth-Century Germany Bettina Hitzer, 2022 This study details the history of cancer and emotions in twentieth century Germany and thus follows the cancer associated transformations of emotional regimes emotional politics and emotional experiences through five different political systems
