The Mystery Plays:

The York Mystery Plays Margaret Rogerson, 2011 Essays on the York Mystery Plays uniting voices from the scholarly world with the York community that has assumed responsibility for their production today The York Play of Corpus Christi also known as the York Cycle has been central to the study of early English theatre for over a century and a touchstone for the revival of medieval dramatic practice for over fifty years But these two endeavours have often found little common ground This volume therefore accomplishes something very important It brings together scholars of medieval English drama and places them in dialogue with experienced practitioners from the community Together they share a common commitment to understanding how performances matter to the communities that produce them and how plays intersect with other public activities CAROL SYMES Professor of History University of Illinois at Urbana This volume provides a wealth of new insights into the performance of mystery plays in medieval York and their modern revival It utilises both academic study and the practical experience of those who now produce the cycle within York itself on wagons in the street in an approximation of their original performance A number of topics are covered The manuscript is linked to Richard III the Masons are introduced as non guildsmen in an enterprise assumed to be guild specific families not just male heads of households are shown to be important to the dramatic narrative and cognitive theory elucidates performance past and present Recent productions are discussed in lively detail by those directly responsible for them leading to analyses of performances in Israel Spain and Australia not all of them of a predictable kind which offer further angles on the medieval dramatic tradition Professor Margaret Rogerson teaches in the Department of English at the University of Sydney Contributors Margaret Rogerson Keith Jones Richard Beadle Sheila K Christie Mike Tyler Jill Stevenson Elenid Davies Ben Pugh Peter Brown Tony Wright Steve Bielby Emma Cunningham Alan Heaven Linda Ali Paul Toy Gweno Williams John Merrylees David Richmond Alexandra F Johnston Sharon Aronson Lehari Pamela M King

The Middle English Mystery Play Hans-Jurgen Diller, 1992-07-30 A major study of the mystery plays of medieval England focusing on the function of their speech and dramatic form

The Towneley Cycle Of The Mystery Plays (Or The Wakefield Cycle): Thirty-Two Pageants Anonymous, 2008-08-16 The Wakefield or Towneley Mystery Plays are a series of thirty two mystery plays based on the Bible most likely performed around Corpus Christi day in again most likely the town of Wakefield England during the late Middle Ages until 1576 It is one of only four surviving English mystery play cycles The unique manuscript now housed at the Huntington Library San Marino California originated in the mid fifteenth century The manuscript came into the possession of the Towneley family in 1814 who lent their name it Although almost the entire manuscript is in a fifteenth century hand the cycle was performed as early as the fourteenth century in an earlier form The Wakefield Cycle is most renowned for the inclusion of The Second Shepherds Play one of the jewels of medieval theatre

The English Mystery Plays Rosemary Woolf, 1972 This important new study of the English mystery plays has a twofold purpose It is concerned to investigate the antecedents of the four extant cycles and to demonstrate the dramatic value of the plays themselves The opening and concluding chapters place the plays in their historical context by discussing on the one hand the emergence and achievements of genuine religious drama as opposed to liturgical drama in the twelfth century and on the other the changes in taste that threw the plays into disrepute in the sixteenth century The main part of the book analyzes the plays in detail considering the iconographic and theological traditions that guided the dramatists in their treatment of biblical subject matter and also looking at the Continental drama of the time to find out what other dramatic possibilities were open to writers in the Middle Ages From publisher's description

Studies in the English Mystery Plays Charles Davidson, 1892 The Mystery Plays Roberto Aguirre-Sacasa, 2005 THE STORY THE MYSTERY PLAYS is two interrelated one acts loosely based on the tradition of the medieval mystery plays In the first play THE FILMMAKER'S MYSTERY Joe Manning a director of horror films survives a terrible train wreck only to be

Modern Mysteries Katie Normington, 2007 A lively account of the modern staging of the medieval mystery plays richly illustrated with stills and other photographs The turn of the last millennium saw a sudden flourishing in the revival of the medieval mystery plays with a number of different productions being staged across the country and further afield But why were they staged What features of the plays attracted the modern day director What can the mystery plays offer today's producers directors participants and audiences This book seeks to answer these questions Beginning with an exploration of the original staging conditions the study goes on to examine the reasons why the plays are produced today and through a series of case studies looks at how notions of community identity and space are articulated within contemporary stagings it considers productions at Chester Chichester Leeds Lichfield Lincoln Toronto Worsbrough and York as well as productions by the Royal National Theatre Royal Shakespeare Company and the Belgrade Theatre Coventry Importantly the author uses evidence gleaned from interviews with directors and producers and observation of rehearsals and performances to bring a fresh and modern perspective to bear Richly illustrated KATIE NORMINGTON is Professor of Drama at Royal Holloway University of London

The Mystery Plays and Their Relation to Subsequent English Literature Benjamin John Fitz, 1898 English Mystery Plays, 1975 York Mystery Plays Richard Beadle, Pamela M. King, 1984 This volume collects twenty two of the forty seven extant pageants that make up York's famous Corpus Christi cycle including six by the York Realist Chosen on the basis of literary and dramatic merit as well as to give an idea of the scope and nature of the cycle the plays are augmented by useful explanatory headnotes running glossaries on each page and a general introduction
