New Black Renaissance Manning Marable, Adina Popescu, Khary Jones, Patricia Lespinasse, 2015-12-03 Against a backdrop of multiculturalism and Afrocentricity in the intellectual traditions of African American studies this book sets new standards and directions for the future It is the first book to systematically address the many themes that have changed the political and social landscape for African Americans Among these changes are new transnational processes of globalization the devastating impact of neoliberal public policies upon urban minority communities increasing imprisonment and attendant loss of voting rights especially among black males the surging of Hispanic population and widening class differences as deindustrialization crack cocaine and gentrification entered urban communities Marable and a cast of influential contributors suggest that a new beginning is needed for African American scholarship They explain why Black Studies needs to break its conceptual and thematic limitations exploring blackness in new ways and in different geographic sites They outline the major intersectionalities that should shape a new Black Studies the complex relationships between race gender sexuality class and youth They argue that African American Studies scholarship must help shape and redirect public policies that affect black communities working with government foundations and other private institutions on such issues as housing health care and criminal justice

Dialogues The Liberation of Theology Chapter 14 Crime and Law Rediscovering Criminology Lessons from the Marxist Tradition Chapter 15 Urban and Regional Development Views of the City Urban and Regional Sociology Corporate Power and Urban Crisis in Detroit Lynda Ann Ewen, 2015-03-08 Lynda Ann Ewen offers the first thoroughgoing Marxist Leninist analysis based on primary research of the structure and dynamics of class relations and corporate power in a major U S metropolitan area She contends that Detroit's urban crisis is not a temporary aberration in a good system run amuck but the logical result of years of social planning and the use of human and natural resources for the benefit of the few In general analyses of the problems in American society have endorsed capitalist ideals and assumptions Nevertheless these analyses and the reform measures that have accompanied them in the past decade have done little to alleviate the plight of the cities To determine what action should now be taken Professor Ewen focuses on the development of class conflict in the United States and its manifestations in Detroit The author analyzes kinship and also ownership and control of the major firms in Detroit The contradictions that led to the urban crisis she concludes are inherent in the fundamental nature of a class society in which the social means of production are privately owned by an elite group who must produce profits at all costs She argues that to protect its interests and prepare the way for socialism the working class requires a grasp of its historical and present opposition to the ruling class Originally published in 1978 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905 Strangers in the Land Eric J Sundquist, 2009-06-30 The importance of blacks for Jews and Jews for blacks in conceiving of themselves as Americans when both remained outsiders to the privileges of full citizenship is a matter of voluminous but perplexing record A monumental work of literary criticism and cultural history Strangers in the Land draws upon politics sociology law religion and popular culture to illuminate a vital highly conflicted interethnic partnership over the course of a century

Free the Land Edward Onaci, 2020-04-17 On March 31 1968 over 500 Black nationalists convened in Detroit to begin the process of securing independence from the United States Many concluded that Black Americans best remaining hope for liberation was the creation of a sovereign nation state the Republic of New Afrika RNA New Afrikan citizens traced boundaries that encompassed a large portion of the South including South Carolina Georgia Alabama Mississippi and Louisiana as part of their demand for reparation As champions of these goals they framed their struggle as one that would allow the descendants of enslaved people to choose freely whether they should be citizens of the United States New Afrikans also argued for financial restitution for the enslavement and subsequent inhumane treatment of Black Americans The struggle to Free the Land remains active to this day This book is the first to tell the full history of the RNA and the New

Afrikan Independence Movement Edward Onaci shows how New Afrikans remade their lifestyles and daily activities to create a self consciously revolutionary culture and argues that the RNA s tactics and ideology were essential to the evolution of Black political struggles Onaci expands the story of Black Power politics shedding new light on the long term legacies of mid century Black Nationalism
