The New Medievalism Parallax Ser Re Visions Of Culture And Society:

Towards a Synthesis?, 2023-10-16 The 1980 s and early 1990 s were witness to controversial discussions concerning the nature and role of philology in medieval studies Some scholars defended the values and methods of tradition while others argued for a break with the past and the need to rethink medieval studies in the light of a post modern episteme The essays in this book reflect the vigour of the debate with reference to romance studies particularly Old French Taken collectively they argue not for a choice between two extreme positions but rather a synthesis that combines the best of both worlds The contributors are Donald Maddox Richard F O Gorman William D Paden Rupert T Pickens Barbara N Sargent Baur Evelyn Birge Vitz Haijo Westra and Keith Busby Arthurian Bibliography IV Elaine Barber, 2002 This fourth volume of entries culled in the main from BBSIA covers the years 1933 to 1998 inclusive The cumulative volumes of the Bibliography offer an exhaustive author and title database of the burgeoning scholarship in this field The 'Roman de la Rose' and Thirteenth-Century Thought Jonathan Morton, Marco Nievergelt, 2020-07-16 The thirteenth century allegorical dream vision the Roman de la Rose transformed how medieval literary texts engaged with philosophical ideas Written in Old French its influence dominated French English and Italian literature for the next two centuries serving in particular as a model for Chaucer and Dante Jean de Meun s section of this extensive complex and dazzling work is notable for its sophisticated responses to a whole host of contemporary philosophical debates This collection brings together literary scholars and historians of philosophy to produce the most thorough interdisciplinary study to date of how the Rose uses poetry to articulate philosophical problems and positions This wide ranging collection demonstrates the importance of the poem for medieval intellectual history and offers new insights into the philosophical potential both of the Rose specifically and of medieval poetry as a whole The Medieval World Peter Linehan, Janet L. Nelson, 2013-09-13 This groundbreaking collection brings the Middle Ages to life and conveys the distinctiveness of this diverse constantly changing period Thirty eight scholars bring together one medieval world from many disparate worlds from Connacht to Constantinople and from Tynemouth to Timbuktu This extraordinary set of reconstructions presents the reader with a vivid re drawing of the medieval past offering fresh appraisals of the evidence and modern historical writing Chapters are thematically linked in four sections identities beliefs social values and symbolic order power and power structures elites organizations and groups Packed full of original scholarship The Medieval World is essential reading for anyone studying medieval history The Refrain and the Rise of the Vernacular in Medieval French Music and Poetry Jennifer Saltzstein, 2013 A survey of the use of the refrain in thirteenth and fourteenth century French music and poetry showing how it was skilfully deployed to assert the validity of the vernacular The relationship between song quotation and the elevation of French as a literary language that could challenge the cultural authority of Latin is the focus of this book It approaches this phenomenon through a close examination of the refrain a short phrase of music and text quoted intertextually across thirteenth and early fourteenth century musical and poetic genres The author draws on a wide range of case studies from motets trouv re song plays romance vernacular translations and proverb collections to show that medieval composers quoted refrains as vernacular auctoritates she argues that their appropriation of scholastic Latinate writing techniques worked to authorize Old French music and poetry as media suitable for the transmission of knowledge Beginning with an exploration of the quasi scholastic usage of refrains in anonymous and less familiar clerical contexts the book goes on to articulate a new framework for understanding the emergence of the first two named authors of vernacular polyphonic music the cleric trouv res Adam de la Halle and Guillaume de Machaut It shows how by blending their craft with the writing practices of the universities composers could use refrain quotation to assert their status as authors with a new self consciousness and to position works in the vernacular as worthy of study and interpretation Jennifer Saltzstein is Assistant Professor of Musicology at the University of Oklahoma

Studies in the Age of Chaucer ,1993 Passion and Compassion in Early Christianity Susan Wessel,2016-06-09 This book examines how the early Christian elite articulated and cultivated the affective dimensions of compassion in a Roman world that promoted emotional tranquillity as the path to human flourishing Drawing upon a wide range of early Christians from both east and west Wessel situates each author in the broader cultural and intellectual context The reader is introduced to the diverse conditions in which Christians felt and were urged to feel compassion in exemplary ways and in which warnings were sounded against the possibilities for distortion and exploitation Wessel argues that the early Christians developed literary methods and rhetorical techniques to bring about appropriate emotional responses to human suffering Their success in this regard marks the beginning of affective compassion as a Christian virtue Comparison with early modern and contemporary philosophers and ethicists further demonstrates the intrinsic worth of the early Christian understanding of compassion

The Medieval Chastity Belt A. Classen,2007-03-19 The chastity belt is one of those objects people have commonly identified with the dark Middle Ages This book analyzes the origin of this myth and demonstrates how a convenient misconception or contorted imagination of an allegedly historical practice has led to profoundly flawed interpretations of control mechanisms used by jealous husbands Snapshots of Evolving Traditions Liv Ingeborg Lied,Hugo Lundhaug,2017-01-23 Scholars of early Christian and Jewish literature have for many years focused on interpreting texts in their hypothetical original forms and contexts while largely overlooking important aspects of the surviving manuscript evidence and the culture that produced it This volume of essays seeks to remedy this situation by focusing on the material aspects of the manuscripts themselves and the fluidity of textual transmission in a manuscript culture With an emphasis on method and looking at texts as they have been used and transmitted in manuscripts this book discusses how we may deal with textual evidence that can often be described as mere snapshots of fluid textual traditions that have been intentionally adapted to fit ever shifting contexts The emphasis of the book is on the contexts and interests of users and producers of texts as they appear in our surviving manuscripts rather than on original authors and their intentions and the essays provide both important correctives to former textual interpretations as well as new insights into the societies and individuals that copied and read the texts in the manuscripts that have actually been preserved to us      The Journal of Medieval and Early Modern Studies ,2008
