Coffee and Cupid Elizabeth Pulliam, 2017-07-14 Coffee and Cupid in Cranbury On October 27 almost 70 years after they first met 89 Year old Drewey Pulliam finally married Elisabeth Gatzio Drewey had first proposed to Elizabeth when he was a young soldier during World War II Injured during the war and suffering with malaria Drewey was reluctant to burden young Elizabeth with his problems so he broke off the engagement They both ended up marrying other people and raising families with their new spouses In December 2011 both were single again and Cupid's arrow once again found its mark Elizabeth's daughter also named Elizabeth contacted Drewey's son Ray and on January 7 the couple re connected During a visit in June Drewey proposed once again only to be rebuffed initially by Elizabeth She had after all been married for some 65 years previously and wasn't interested in more married life Drewey persisted and when he proposed again a month later she relented Their story began in 1942 when the 15 year old Elizabeth and her friends wanted to volunteer at the local USO Though she wasn't old enough to volunteer her friends encouraged her to lie about her age She did the patriotic thing and volunteered She was put on the coffee line because it was one of the easier jobs She remembers Drewey coming up three separate times for coffee in that first fateful evening She suspected that he was desperately shy but wanted to talk to her After doling out Drewey's third serving of coffee Elizabeth decided to investigate more closely She told her friends about the young man's mysterious fondness for coffee and they advised her to take the initiative if he came up again Fortunately Drewey did come up for his fourth cup at which point the young Elizabeth broke the ice Soon after the young Elizabeth excused herself from her vending duties and the young couple sat down to talk Drewey Pulliam was clearly smitten that evening and after a while invited his young lady to the movies Elizabeth now recalls we went to the movies the following Saturday even though I was not supposed to date at the age of fifteen The bride had set her heart on getting married in Cranbury David Cook Cranbury's genial Mayor bent the rules for the couple who were not at this point residents of Cranbury He officiated at a simple ceremony which was held at the Gazebo in Village Park not far from the 34 Maplewood Avenue home where the young Elizabeth had once lived The picturesque Village Park overlooks Brainerd Lake where the young couple had once swam The weather was gorgeous and the still handsome couple finally wed supported by family and close friends
