poetic cycle since William Shakespeare's sonnets and finally convinced her to publish it All the poems of Sonnets of Portuguese reflect the sentimental relationship between Elizabeth Barrett Browning and Robert Browning To soften the intimate character of the work and especially to hide their identities as main sources of the poems the author decided to give her an ambiguous title as if they were actually translations of Portuguese sonnets The book was finally titled Sonnets from the Portuguese The play was effective since for many years it was thought that those love sonnets had really been translated from Portuguese
