Masoretic Text the Hebrew Dead Sea Scrolls and the Greek Septuagint Each Psalm is analysed separately in all three sources complete with a translation and detailed comments on form intertextuality content genre and date Comparisons of the individual Psalms and their intertextual references in the ancient sources highlight substantial differences between the transmitted texts The book concludes that Psalms 146 150 were at first separate texts which only in the Masoretic Text form the end of the Psalter It thus stresses the importance of Psalms Exegesis before Psalter Exegesis and argues for the inclusion of ancient sources beyond to the Masoretic Text to further our understanding of the Psalms      Catalog of Copyright Entries Library of Congress.
