Taut, acidly witty, menacingly erotic and often absolutely terrifying, this is a literary thriller of propulsive force that introduces a powerful storyteller. An Edgar Finalist for Best First Novel. Semifinalist for the 2017 VCU Cabell First Novelist Award. It begins when a meth-addicted grave robber unearths the death mask of Montezuma, setting off a violent struggle for its possession. There is the drug lord who employs him, who would kill for that mask. There is the expat American collector, sinister and possibly mad. There is the greatly respected curator who for a fee will provide provenances for his country's looted artifacts and his long-suffering housekeeper, a deeply religious lesbian in a culture of machismo who despises her patron. And there is the looter himself, who has stolen the mask and is now running for his life. Above all, there is Anna Ramsey, an American with a history of bad choices who has hidden behind a mask all her adult life. A deeply wounded woman, Anna knows that masks protect and conceal. Anna is a heroine for our times as she searches for the courage to remove her mask and show her true face.
