Kujawa-Holbrook, 2002-12-31 Contrary to the oft repeated truism there are churches in America where Sunday is not the most segregated day of the week as Sheryl Kujawa Holbrook convincingly demonstrates in her compelling exploration of congregations tackling racial justice issues Yet the truism continues to haunt many congregations and Kujawa Holbrook reveals through story and thoughtful analysis what it means to create and live out multiracial community Focusing on six congregations from different denominations geographical regions and settings the author shows us the joys and struggles in their intentional pursuits of a more diverse and just community The stories in A House of Prayer for All Peoples will inspire leaders to explore their congregation s history study their community s demographics and most of all search their souls for ways they can develop and celebrate the diversity in their midst The book is capped by an extensive annotated resource list for readers who want to explore the topic further      A Documentary History of Unitarian Universalism, Volume Two Dan McKanan, 2017 A panel of top scholars presents the first comprehensive collection of primary sources from Unitarian Universalist history This critical resource covers the long histories of Unitarianism Universalism and Unitarian Universalism in the United States and around the world and offers a wealth of sources from the first fifty five years of the Unitarian Universalist Association From Arius and Origen to Peter Morales and Rebecca Parker this two volume anthology features leaders thinkers and ordinary participants in the ever changing tradition of liberal religion Each volume contains more than a hundred distinct selections with scholarly introductions by leading experts in Unitarian Universalist history The selections include sermons theologies denominational statements hymns autobiographies and manifestos with special attention to class cultural gender and sexual diversity Primary sources are the building blocks of history and A Documentary History of Unitarian Universalism presents the sources we need for understanding this denomination s past and for shaping its future      Beyond Apathy Elisabeth T. Vasko, 2015-01-01 Theological conversations about violence have typically framed the discussion in terms of victim and perpetrator Such work while important only addresses part of the problem Comprehensive theological and pastoral responses to violence must also address the role of collective passivity in the face of human denigration Given the pervasiveness of inaction whether in the form of denial willful ignorance or silent complicity a theological reflection on violence that holds bystanders accountable especially those who occupy social sites of privilege is long overdue In Beyond Apathy Elisabeth T Vasko utilizes resources within the Christian tradition to examine the theological significance of bystander participation in patterns of violence and violation within contemporary Western culture giving particular attention to the social issues of bullying white racism and sexual violence In doing so she constructs a theology of redeeming grace for bystanders to violence that foregrounds the significance of social action in bringing about God s basileia      Historical
