Moore,2014-01-10 Most of George Gissing s 23 novels have a certain air of autobiography despite Gissing s frequent arguments that his fictional plots bear little resemblance to his own life and experiences Starting with Workers in the Dawn 1880 almost all of Gissing s fictional works are set in his own time period of late Victorian England and five of his first six novels focus on the working class poor that Gissing would have encountered frequently during his early writing career While most recent criticism focuses on Gissing s works as biographical narratives this work approaches Gissing s novels as purely imaginative works of art giving him the benefit of the doubt regardless of how well his books seem to match up with the events of his own life By analyzing important themes in his novels and recognizing the power of the artist s imagination especially through the critical works of Coleridge Wordsworth Shelley and Keats the author reveals how Gissing s novels present a lived feel of the world Gissing knew firsthand The author asserts that at most Gissing used his personal experiences as a starting point to transform his own life and thoughts into stories that explain the social personal and cultural significance of such experiences      The Politics and New Humanism of André Brink Isidore Diala,2018-11-08 This book appraises Andr Brink s reputation as an internationally acclaimed commentator on the enormities of the apartheid state and one of South Africa s foremost novelists Highlighting Brink s enduring meditation on the writer s responsibility to a society in a state of moral and political siege and his exemplary position in the interrogation of the subtle discursive strategies of the apartheid establishment it refers extensively to Brink s oeuvre but focuses mainly on his first seven novels in English The Ambassadors Looking on Darkness An Instant in the Wind Rumours of Rain A Dry White Season A Chain of Voices and The Wall of the Plague Aimed primarily at students of South Africa it draws on postcolonial theory to examine the ideological implications of the Western aesthetic and intellectual background that nurtured Brink s imagination his fixation with the tragic vision Christian theology and existentialism in the context of his professed political affiliations      Screenwriting in The Land of Oz Richard Krevolin,2010-12-18 Set your sights on a screenwriting career and you know you re not in Kansas anymore With some 100 000 original screenplays vying to be among the 7 000 few made into movies every year craft is key and competition is fierce Enter the Wizard Award winning screenwriter and playwright and acclaimed writing instructor Richard Krevolin who shows you the way to turn your good ideas into great stories and your great stories into compelling scripts With the writer s gift for storytelling and the professor s gift for teaching Krevolin gives you the brains heart and courage you need to make it in the Emerald City of Hollywood one yellow brick at a time
