Soul Theology The Heart Of American Black Culture:

Soul Theology Nicholas C. Cooper-Lewter, Henry H. Mitchell, 1986 The Oxford Handbook of African American Theology Katie G. Cannon, Anthony B. Pinn, 2014-07-01 Named an Honor Book for Nonfiction by the Black Caucus of the American Library Association African American theology has a long and important history With modern roots in the civil rights movements of the 1960s African American theology has gone beyond issues of justice and social transformation to participate in broader dialogues of theological inquiry The Oxford Handbook of African American Theology brings together leading scholars in the field to offer a critical and comprehensive analysis of this theological tradition in its many forms and contexts Using an interdisciplinary approach this Oxford Handbook examines the nature structures and functions of African American Theology The volume surveys the field by highlighting its sources doctrines internal debates current challenges and future prospects in order to present key topics related to the wider palette of Black Religion in a sustained scholarly format This formative collection presents current scholarship on African American Theology and scripture eschatology Christology womanist theology sexuality ontology the global economy and much more The contributors represent a diverse set of faith perspectives adding to the layered discourses within the volume These essays further important discussions on the pressing debates and challenges that shape black and womanist theologies Sacred Mission, Worldly Ambition Adele Oltman, 2012-01-01 Using Savannah Georgia as a case study Sacred Mission Worldly Ambition tells the story of the rise and decline of Black Christian Nationalism This nationalism emerged from the experiences of segregation as an intersection between the sacred world of religion and church and the secular world of business The premise of Black Christian Nationalism was a belief in a dual understanding of redemption at the same time earthly and otherworldly and the conviction that black Christians once delivered from psychic spiritual and material want would release all of America from the suffering that prevented it from achieving its noble ideals The study s use of local sources in Savannah especially behind the scenes church records provides a rare glimpse into church life and ritual depicting scenes never before described Blending history ethnography and Geertzian dramaturgy it traces the evolution of black southern society from a communitarian nationalist system of hierarchy patriarchy and interclass fellowship to an individualistic one that accompanied the appearance of a new black civil society Although not a study of the civil rights movement Sacred Mission Worldly Ambition advances a bold revisionist interpretation of black religion at the eve of the movement It shows that the institutional primacy of the churches had to give way to a more diversified secular sphere before an overtly politicized struggle for freedom could take place The unambiguously political movement of the 1950s and 1960s that drew on black Christianity and radiated from many black churches was possible only when the churches came to exert less control over members quotidian lives A Sarah Mills Hodge Fund Publication Social Theory Peter Kivisto, 2021 This is an undergraduate reader for students taking course in social theory United by Faith Curtiss Paul DeYoung, Michael O. Emerson, George A. Yancey, 2004 Presents an argument for multiracial Christian congregations in breaking down racial barriers in the United States Feminist Television Criticism: A Reader Brunson, Charlotte, Spigel, Lynn, 2007-12-01 Covers the area of feminist media criticism This edition discusses subjects including alternative family structures de westernizing media studies industry practices Sex and the City Oprah and Buffy Shaded Lives Beretta E. Smith-Shomade, 2002 In Shaded Lives Beretta Smith Shomade sets out to dissect images of the African American woman in television from the 1980s She calls their depiction binaristic or split African American women although an essential part of television programming today are still presented as distorted and deviant By closely examining the television texts of African American women in comedy music video television news and talk shows Oprah Winfrey is highlighted Smith Shomade shows how these voices are represented what forces may be at work in influencing these images and what alternate ways of viewing might be available Nurturing Faith and Hope Anne E. Streaty Wimberly, 2010-02-01 Wimberly's latest work presents pastors church lay leaders and scholars with a new lens to think critically and joyously about how Christian education undergirds and supports the worship experience in nurturing faith and hope in black parishioners David L Wallace Sr Dean Johnson C Smith Theological Seminary The Interdenominational Theological Center Atlanta Georgia This highly recommended work provides a thoughtful yet comprehensive framework of the black Christian worshipping community as the context where faith and hope are nurtured Marsha Snulligan Haney Associate Professor of Missiology and Religions of the World The Interdenominational Theological Center Atlanta Georgia This is a must read for all pastors and worship designers who desire to make worship relevant for African American Congregations Cecelia M Long former General Secretariat of the General Commission on the Status and Role of Women in the United Methodist Church Innovative dynamic thought provoking and inspiring A must read for pastors church leaders Christian educators and anyone interested in revitalizing Christian education in the 21st Century Yolanda Y Smith Assistant Professor of Christian Education Yale University Divinity School and author of Reclaiming the Spirituals New Possibilities for African American Christian Education Dr Wimberly has seized upon the heretofore unspoken wisdom of the black church Local church laity and clergy will easily access this fine work for local churches Lynne Westfield Assistant Professor of Christian Education Drew Theological School Madison New Jersey Wimberly understands comprehensively the ways education is embodied in congregational life Indeed she invites us to nurture faith and hope Jack L Seymour Professor of Religious Education and Academic Dean Garrett Evangelical Theological Seminary Evanston Illinois Anne E Streaty Wimberly is Professor of Christian Education at The Interdenominational Theological Center in Atlanta Georgia She is the author of several books including Soul Stories African American Christian Education 1994 Religion, Families, and Health Christopher G. Ellison, Robert A. Hummer, 2010 This book is a compilation of population based research on the relationships of religion to family life and health The Power of Love and Democracy in the Philosophies of Martin Luther King, Jr. and Cornel West Timothy L. Lake, 2025-09-18 This book locates an ethic of love as central to the democratic philosophies of

Martin Luther King Jr and Cornel West While much has been written about King's moral vision social activism and theology there has been no book length treatment of the implications of his thinking to democratic theory Additionally Cornel West is the leading African American public intellectual of our time but the range of his cultural criticism and academic scholarship obscures his intellectual and social projects This project synthesizes West's vast corpus and places him within the modern African American intellectual tradition he shares with Du Bois King Maulana Karenga the creator of Kwanza and others Deeply grounded in the African American intellectual and philosophical traditions in which King and West are rooted as well as the Western mainstream political philosophical traditions in which they were educated this book offers a penetrating interpretation and comparative analysis of their thought on the ideals of democracy and of their critiques of American democracy It also reflects on the nature and values of democracy exploring how love is inseparable from justice in a democratic society

Words of Fire Beverly Guy-Sheftall, 2011-07-26 In this pathbreaking collection of articles Dr Beverly Guy Sheftall has taken us from the early 1830s to contemporary times Only since the seventies have black women used the term feminism And yet it is that concept that she uses to bring into the same frame the ideas and analyses of Maria Stewart Sojourner Truth and Frances W E Harper of the early nineteenth century and the work of women such as the late Audre Lorde Barbara Smith and bell hooks who stand on the threshold of the twenty first century She has refused to cut off contemporary African American women from the long line of sisters who have righteously struggled for the liberation of African American women from the dual oppressions of racism and sexism From the epilogue by Johnnetta B Cole President Spelman College The indefatigable Beverly Guy Sheftall has put together a breathtaking sweep of African American feminist thought in one indispensable volume Elizabeth Spelman Professor of Philosophy Smith College Blacks and Whites in Christian America Jason E. Shelton, Michael Oluf Emerson, 2012-10-08 In this engaging and accessible sociological study of white and black Christian beliefs Jason E Shelton and Michael O Emerson push beyond establishing that there are racial differences in belief and practice among members of American Protestantism to explore why those differences exist
